SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER, 12 1914.

THE celebration in Baltimore was a big success in every particular. Congratulation, Mayor Preston.

VOTE for John Walter Smith next Tuesday and thus show your appreciation for faithful service, unselfish devotion to party and loyal allegiance to President Wilson.

DON'T fail to vote next Tuesday in the Primary. This is a time when good men are needed at Washington and Democrats have a chance to put one there and keep another on the job.

IT requires three marks on the ballot this year. One opposite Senator John Walter Smith's name, one opposite Jesse D. Price in first group and one opposite Jesse D. Price in seeond group. Make three marks!

THE Sacred College at Rome on Thursday elected Cardinal Giacomo Della Chiesa Pope, to succeed the late Pope Pius X. The new Pope was Archbishop of Bologna and had only been a Cardinal for four months. He was not in the running at all at first and was chosen as a compromise candidate. Cardinal Gibbons, who was on the way to Rome, did not arrive in time to participate in the election.

How strange it all seems. In time of peace, during the last forty years or so, nations have devoted themselves to means for preserving life, educating and training their children to be competent in their tasks, promoting things for the increase of wealth and comfort and right living, devising means for insuring the lives of children. In a flash all this is swept away and we shall read before it is over, almost without comment, of battles involving heavy loss of life, although in times of peace we shrink with horror on hearing the news of the loss of life by the sinking of a steamer, in a railway wreck or in a mine disaster. As war kills physical bodies, so also does it almost wreck the intellect for normal thinking on what concerns vital things in human welfare.

THE Easton Gazette says, "The action of Judge Adkins and State's Attoney Butler in closing up the gamblers that infest the Fair this year will be generally approved by the thinking people of the county. There is not the slightest doubt in the world that games of chance that have been allowed to run here, rob people of hard earned money and generally lower the tone of an institution that owes its existence to the fact that it is supposedly a benefit to the community in an uplifting and educational way, are in direct violation to the law of this state and the only question seems to be, why were they not permanently and effectually cleaned up long ago?"

THE primary election for the nomination of a candidate to be voted on this fall to succeed Congressman Covington, takes places next Tuesday, September 15. All Democrats in Kent county should turn out and take an interest in the Primary Election. There are three Democratic candidates, namely Colonel A. W. Sisk, of Caroline county, Senator Jesse D. Price, of Wicomico county, and James T. Bright, of Queen Annes county.

Senator Price is a candidate for both the short and long terms and to make sure of the nomination of Senator Price for both terms be particular to MARK AN X OPPOSITE HIS NAME IN BOTH GROUPS. Voters should be particular about this. Don't make any mistake.

Colonel Sisk is a candidate for the long term only and Mr. Bright for the short term only.

Next Tuesday is Primary Day for Democrats.

THE DAY OF PRAYER.

President Wilson's proclamation calling for a national day of prayer on October 4 for the cessation of war in Europe probably is without precedent in this or any other country. But if so, it is the most beautiful precedent that has ever been set in any nation. There are prayers for peace in our prayerbooks, and days of prayer for the speedy termination of wars have been often fixed by official proclamation in countries engaged in them; but for a neutral nation of more than 90,000,000 of people to get down on its knees and pray for peace in other countries will be one of the most impressive as well as one of the most unusual spectacles ever presented on earth We believe everybody in the United States will offer up a prayer on that day in the earnest spirit of altruism which the President's message suggest. And if anything can make a path for peace "where men can see none," we believe unselfish supplication from the heart of a great country can open the door of divine compassion.—The Sun.

RUNNING ON HIS RECORD.

In The NEWS of last week was to be found a statement from the Hon. Jesse D. Price, candidate for the Democratic nomination for the unexpired term of Hon. J. Harry Covington, and for the full term in the 64th Congress. In this statement Senator Price put forth his claim for this nomination on his record as a Democrat and on his record as President of the Maryland Senate for two terms. While he modestly refers to some of the things he has accomplished for his people and for the State of Maryland, Senator Price could have pointed to many more acts of constructive legislation which eminated from him and which will prove a great help to the people of the State.

Some of the political enemies of Senator Price are trying to make it appear that he was too ambitious in seeking the nomination for both the short and long terms, and Messrs. Sisk and Bright, it is claimed, have pooled issues together, Mr. Bright running for the short term and Mr. Sisk for the long term, hoping thereby to defeat Senator Price for either one or the other or probably both. Everybody who is acquainted with political conditions at Washington knows that the man who is elected for the short term alone can be of no benefit to his constituents and that it simply means the drawing of so much salary for practically no work. Senator Price is making the right fight. If he is to be of any service to his party in his long term encumbency it would be much better that he be elected for the short term and thereby get broken into the routine of office before the long term begins. By this method he can be of much greater service to his party and to his State.

Democrats who are favorable to Senator Price should not forget that it will be necessary to vote for him twice on the Primary Ballot. His name will be printed in two places, one for the short term and one for the long term, and the mistake of only voting for him once should not be made, as by this mistake he might be defeated for both nominations. Vote for Price twice on the Ballot and make no mistake. The opponents of Senator Price will endeavor to get it into the minds of the voters that it is only necessary to vote for him once. It is necessary to make a mark opposite his name in two places to give him the proper support.

During his political career Senator Price has shown his ability to make a record for himself and he will make a Congressman who will be extremely useful to the people of the First Congressional District, and the people may feel certain that with Price in Congress this District will get everything which belongs to it and we always feel that our interests are being well taken care of. He has had the Legislative experience which is necessary to make a useful Congressman, and while a new man would be several years getting broken into the difficult details of the Congressional experience, Senator Price can walk into Congress and take up the work where it is left off by Congressman Covington and be familiar with the details and perform the duties in a perfectly acceptable manner.

Senator Price is making this fight on his Legislative record, and he ought to win.

THE primary election, for Democratic voters only this time, will be held next Tuesday, September 15. There are no local offices to be filled this fall, so the only contests are for the nominations for United States Senator and Congressman.

WEDNESDAY, Sept. 16th, 1914

At 1.30 P. M., at the Court House Door in Chestertown, Kent county, aforesaid, to the highest bidder, of as fine soil as there is in the county is located immediately on the new state road building from Fairlee to Chestertown, with a school house on the opposite side of the road from the farm and is but about 3 miles from Chestertown and eight from Golchester. The soil is easily tilled and very productive, growing every kind of grain, fruit or vegetable produced in this locality. The land is gently rolling and well watered making it especially adapted to stock raising. The drinking water is excellent also. There is a pear orchard of about 1900 trees and young apple orchard of about 100 trees, besides a quantity of other kin is of fruit trees on the farm.

This Farm, consisting of

281½ Acres

MORE OR LESS.

The Buildings ARE GOOD and sufficient for the use of the farm while the fields are under good fencing and laid off conveniently and advantageously for profitable cropping.

Possession of the farm will be given January 1st. 1916, with all landlords rights and privileges in the meantime. This farm would make a desirable investment or country home.

The crops for the present year are reserved, the undersigned paying all taxes for the present year.

Mr. Coleman, the tenant of the farm, is an excellent farmer and an obliging gentleman and will show any prospective buyers the farm or answer any questions relative to its farming and yield they may wish.

TERMS OF SALE.—One-third of the purchase money cash on the day of sale and the remainder in equal installments, with interest from day of sale, in one and two years from the day of sale, or all cash, at the option of the purchaser. NOTICE-WARNING in relation to the Spread of Hog Cholera

Art. 58, Sec. 19, Chap. 321, 1890, Laws of Maryland.

All hogs and other domestic animals dying of any contagious or infectious disease shall be buried at a depth of at least three feet or be burned, at the discretion of the owner, and any person or persons permitting any dead hogs or any other domestic animals having died of any contagious or infectious disease to remain unburied upon his or their premises for the space of three hours prior to sunset of said day after he has discovered the same shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before any justice of the peace, shall be fined not less than ten dollars for each offense or imprisoned in the county jail for not less than ten days, or be both fined and imprisoned in the discretion of the justice.

The above laws are in force and their observance is vital to the suppression of Hog Cholera in Maryland. All persons are warned to observe these laws for the protection of the health of farm animals, and to prevent the spread of disease.

MARION DORSEY
ARMOR DORSEY.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity. No. 1888.

THE object of this suit is to procure a decree for divorce "a vinculo matrimonii" in favor of Marian Dorsey and against Armor Dorsey.

The Bill of Complaint states that for more than three years last past Marian Dorsey has been and still continues to be a resident of Kent county, Maryland. That on or about the 9th day of April, in the year nineteen hundred and seven, she was married to Armor Dorsey, and he deserted her on December 5th, 1909; that three children have been born as a result of said marriage, Florence O. Dorsey, aged seven years, Albert S. Dorsey, age five years, and William A. Dorsey, age four years; that though the conduct of the said Marian Dorsey toward her husband, Armor Dorsey, has always been kind, affectionate and above reproach, he the said Armor Dorsey has, without any just cause or reason, abandoned and deserted her, and has declared his intention to live with her no longer, and that such abandonment has continued uninterruptedly for at least three years, and is deliberate and final, and the separation of the parties beyond any reasonable expectation of reconciliation.

That the defendant, Armor Dorsey, is a non-resident of the State of Maryland, and now resides in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

It is thereupon this 9th day of September, A. D. 1914, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent county in Equity, that the Complainant, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent county once in each of four successive weeks before the 11th day of October, A. D. 1913, giving notice to the said non-resident defendant, Armor Dorsey, of the object and substance of this Bill and warning him to appear in this Court, either in person or by solicitor, on or before the 29th day of October, A. D. 1914, to show cause if any he has, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
