Cheer for Hampton Pirates

Equipment for Provident Held Worthwhile Christmas Project

Clubs, fraternal and civic groups might well adopt as a Christian project the donation of needed equipment, not prohibitive in cost, to Provident Hospital.

According to John L. Procope, hospital superintendent, the institution is in need of a steam table, toaster and drinking fountain in the dietary department; a basal metabolism machine and new furniture for the obstetrical wards.

Needed for the latter are six hospital beds, bedside tables, and over-bed trays, which may be given as a whole or in part by any organization.

Eastern Stars Give 4 Machines

Among the gifts already received by the institution are two otoscopes for ear examinations, and two blood pressure machines.

Donor was the Myra Grand Chapter of the Order of Eastern Star, Mrs. Clara R. Overton, grand deputy, and Mrs. Alma Ringgold, grand worthy matron.

Another gift of bedpan washers was the gift of the hospital's Ladies Auxiliary, Mrs. Isabelle Clark, president. This organization plans to launch a money-raising project to purchase additional equipment.

Romance was Flickering Out

CINDERS, ASHES AND DUST—that was the cold, gray feeling in Jane's heart as she saw her married happiness dying out. And why? Her doctor enlightened her . . . told her once-in-a-while care in feminine hygiene had wrecked many a marriage. He advised using "Lysol" brand disinfectant always, in the douche. A proved germ-killer, "Lysol" cleanses thoroughly, yet gently . . . is far more dependable than salt, soda or other homemade solutions. So easy and economical to use, too! Try it!

For Feminine Hygiene use "Lysol" always!

Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorors Plan Annual Concert Series

with Lula Jones Garrett

Meeting at the YWCA, Saturday, Epsilon Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, made plans for the presentation of its annual concert series.

This year's presentation will include Pruth McFarlin, tenor, on Jan. 19; Carol Brice, contralto, on Feb. 9; and the Hall Johnson Choir on March 9. The first two concerts will be held in Enon Baptist Church, and the third at Douglass High School.

Welcomed at the session were Hermione Jordan and Appye Hurt Hostesses were Bernice Chester, Alice Coleman, Vivian Cook, Irma Davis, Louise Dean, Flossie Dedmond, Cleo Diggs, Mabel Frisby and Wilhelmina Garner.

OPENS TEEN TOWN

Tonight (Friday) Sigma Gamma Rho sorors will open their "Sigma Teen Town" at the Lexington Recreation Center, at the same time they will hold a discussion of "Educational Trends for Youth."

Add to club doings, that of the Tuesday Nighters (Morgan faculty and faculty wives) Club, at which Hermione Hardin copped the bridge prize, and Virginia Richardson and Dollie Walker, pinochle gifts. Hostesses were Beulah Davis, Frances Hill, Inez Jones, and Thelma Preyer.

That of the Saturday Annes, the past week, which was hosted by Edith Gale, at a dinner party, where each received a gift from Mrs. Gale, and selected their "secret pal" for the year. Thelma Lawrence, Catherine Adams, Ruby Grooms, Gracie Hazzard, Jeanette G'Fringe, Aurelia Stanley were about, and guests included Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnson, the junior Harry Gales, and Mary P. Stubbs.

And the Baltimore branch of the National Association of College Women, which met Thursday, and elected Thelma Lawrence to the presidency, with other posts being filled by Marion Webb, vice president; Vernice Matthews, corresponding secretary; Aurelia Stanley, assistant corresponding secretary; Dora Hutchins, financial secretary; and Enna Payne, treasurer.

The Baltimore branch of the National Association of Business and Professional Women, who met Thursday eve and plotted plans for the presentation of Muriel Rahn.

PEREGRINATORS

Lucille W. Gibson left Saturday for Los Angeles, Calif. to visit her cousins, the Deavers, and to join her husband, First Sgt. Emile Gibson, who is returning from a year in Tokyo. Mrs. Clinton Knox was off to Philadelphia, this week, to see her mother, Mrs. Sara Neely, who is ill. Will be joined by her husband, Dr. Knox, and brother-in-law and sister-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. William Knox, and the John Murphys 3rd, from Washington for the holiday affairs.

Mrs. Edna O. Gray will be in Washington, Saturday, for the session of the National Education Association Back from New York this week was Gloria Tucker, who went up to do the plays, see the football game and have a look in on Fifth Ave. The Dallas Nicholases, the Chandler Wynns, Inez Jones and Portia Minor were also in Manhattan for the game.

Ruth W. Lighston will represent the Baltimore group at the annual meeting of the Howard Alumni Association in Washington, Saturday.

The Birche family had as week-end guest, Mrs. Gladys D. Price of Atlantic City, niece of Mrs. Eula Birche. Gladys is here visiting relatives and friends, including her kid sister, Mrs. Vernice D. Matthews of Coppin's faculty. Julia, Mildred, and Norman, of the Downing clan, also reside here. Joining at dinner were Estellena and Meredith, Richard P. Showers, William Stinson, principal of Brown Junior High, Washington, D.C.; Genesta Gilbert, and Clifton Sherrard.

Mrs. Birche announced the engagement of her daughter, Karri Estellena, to Richard P. Showers, son of Sanford Showers and the late Mrs. Alice Showers of Cincinnati, Ohio. Estellena is physical education instructor at Douglass High School and a modern creative concert dancer of note. Richard, a former student of Tennessee A. and I. and Univ. of Cincinnati, is now connected with the Washington Branch of Confidential Reports, Inc. No date has been set for the marriage as yet.

Mrs. Morris Herndon of Kansas City, who came down from New York for a brief week end with the James Murphys, was the focus point of their cocktailer on Sundayeve. About to meet her were the Howard Murphys, Williams Murphys, Berkley Butlers, George McDonalds, Ted Phifers, Al Burwells, Fred Adamses, Maurice Joneses, P. D. G. Pennintons and Cecil Scotts.

POT-POURRI

The Robert (Vashti Murphy) Matthewses have named their new son Robert Murphy Matthews. The Donald (Marion Gandy) Wyatts have a 7½-pound daughter since Thursday. Baby arrived in Philly. Dad is with National Housing in Washington for the nonce.

The Bill Gibsons (Dorothy Cox) are on the second installment of their honeymoon in Phoebus, Va., his home town. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Murphy Matthews. The have announced the engagement of their daughter, Irma T., to Gordon H. Parron, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert C. Parron of this city. The wedding is scheduled for Dec. 29.

BIG WARE WED

Elizabeth Ware, nurse at Provident Hospital, and Ernest Lingo, Morgan student, were married on Saturday at Payne Memorial AME Church parsonage by the Rev. C. Baker Pearlie.

The double ring ceremony was witnessed by William Mitchell and Virginia Pratt. The couple honeymooned in Manhattan. Miss Ware is the daughter of Percy Ware and the late Mrs. Alice Ware of Wellsville, Ohio, and the bridegroom the son of Ernest Lingo of Harrisburg, Pa.

Miss Ethel Paige Beauty Is Her Business

As manager of the Apex Beauty School, Miss Ethel Paige knows beauty . . . and appreciates it.

She's now planning an enlarged program for the training of ex-GI's in the beauty and barbering fields . . . plus her many other activities that fill a full 24 hours in every day of this very capable woman.

Miss Paige is active in the day nursery and juvenile delinquency projects sponsored by the Master Beauticians' Association . . . member of St. Peter Claver's Church . . . and the NAACP.

And, like most prominent Baltimore women, Miss Paige looks to Hendin's for the first in fashion.

Of Hendin's Hollywood Fashions, Miss Paige says:

"I used to go to New York for my clothes . . . but now I buy everything at Hendin's.

"They have the finest quality and the smartest styles in Baltimore . . . it's a pleasure to shop at Hendin's, where everyone is so friendly and courteous."

Attended Council Sessions

Support of Liberal Groups Switched by AVC Resolution

The American Veterans' Committee, by adopting by a marginal vote a resolution drawn up by right wing elements, withdrew its membership and support from the Committee to Abolish Discrimination in Maryland, at a business meeting, Wednesday.

In a session marked by the charge that Communists were attempting to take over AVC, the group explained its withdrawal from CADM with the statement that "the committee is dominated by communistic doctrines."

Group Split Threatened

At the same meeting, AVC aligned itself with the Union for Democratic Action.

A heated debate which threatened to split the veterans' organization accompanied action on the two agencies, both of whose platforms are to fight for minority groups.

Clark Davis was nominated as a candidate for the post of delegate-at-large on the executive committee and Frank Boston nominated for vice president. The election will be held at a later meeting.

Mrs. Lillie Jackson Re-elected 11th Time

For the twelfth consecutive year, Mrs. Lillie M. Jackson was elected president of the local branch, NAACP, during a meeting of the executive board Tuesday.

Addison V. Pinkney was voted to begin his second year as executive secretary. At the meeting, seventeen changes or additions were recommended by the nominating committee of which Dr. George B. Murphy was chairman.

The body reluctantly accepted the resignation of Joshua E. Maxwell, auditor, due to ill health, but recommended that he be named auditor emeritus. His place is to be filled by Ellsworth Wilson.

The following vice presidents were elected: Mrs. Augusta T. Chissell, Mrs. Sarah P. Diggs, Mrs. Mayme Griffin, and the Revs. J. R. Butler, Simon Williamson and E. W. White.
