LETTERS IN POETRY.

The following communication was written by Anthony J. Murray, Phila. Trust Co., to Andrew A. Woodall, of Galena:

FRIEND A.:—
If it should be clear Saturday of this week,
My wife and myself recreation will seek.
Should your wife and yourself approve of the same,
We'll endeavor to reach Lambsons on the evening train,
And should we arrive, until Monday we'll stay,
Unless you're disgusted and turn us away.
An early reply will fill us with glee—
We'll dress in the morning—and afterward flee
To a dear little village in the county of Kent,
And know we'll come back as pleased as we went.
I am now short of paper, and must cease to write
So I'll bid you adieu until Saturday night.
Phila. Pa., Oct. 6, 1914. A. J. M.

The above letter was received at 7 P. M. and the next morning the following reply was sent.

GREETINGS.

Well, well, Mister Andy, we have your cute note
And appreciate, sure, the way it was "wrote."
We noticed, instanter, just where it was from,
Concluding, at once, you were going it some.
If the weather be fine on Saturday eve,
I'll drive out to Lambsons you folks to receive.
My auto is broken, I'm sorry to say—
So I'll have to come out in my "one hoss shay."
We're glad you are coming and happy we'll be
To greet you and treat you just right; you'll agree
That we are the couple—the madam and I—
Who'll feast you on chicken and good pumpkin pie.
We know there is only one place on the earth
Where man realizes what life's really worth:
Of course that one Eden is down here in Kent,
Where living is dreaming—where the hours are spent
In realms of enchantment—delightfully free—
Absorbing pure ozone down here in Md.
Then come, Cousin Andy, come haste with your wife,
And drink from our fountains the nectar of life,
Yes, haste with your dressing, please don't miss the train,
We're waiting and anxious to see you again.
We'll now close our letter—no more we'll indite
Goodbye to you both until Saturday night.
Galena, Md., Oct. 7, 1914. A. A. W.

"The Thinkers of the Country Are the Tobacco Chewers"— said one of the greatest thinkers this country ever produced.

Says the Pilot:

"Nosing a big stern wheeler along a muddy river with sandbars reaching up to grab her—that's when you need real steadiness. When there's nothing but your judgment between your boat and a shoal, take a chew of PICNIC TWIST."

In every convenient twist of PICNIC you'll find the true tobacco uplift without the letdown that comes from dark, heavy, rank tobacco. PICNIC TWIST is a light colored, soft twist of the mild, mellow parts of the leaf.

Men accustomed to "strong" tobacco will be surprised how much they can chew of this mellow twist with its sweet, lasting taste.

PICNIC TWIST

CHEWING TOBACCO

"T... ...ers of the Country Are the Tobacco Chewers"

It comes, also, in economical, freshness-preserving drums of 11 twists for 50c.

A True Statement of Facts

DO NOT let the false representations of others fool you. In all of my dealings with the public for the last 20 years it has been my aim to cut prices, to share profits with the people. Others have tried to follow me, and upon finding that I would undersell them at every turn, some have resorted to low, underhand methods. They have tried—and in some cases succeeded—to get firms to stop selling me their branded goods. When this did not succeed, they made false accusations against me to the public. And yet this fails also.
