SATURDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1914.

MAY this be your best Christmas.

THE happiest person in the country today is the one who does most for his fellowman. Try it.

WHY not spend your own money, and not let some other person do it after you are dead.

IT is understood that Hon. Emerson C. Harrington will announce his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for Governor after Christmas.

THE Md. State Grange held one of the best meetings in its history this week in Baltimore. They declared in favor of government ownership of the telephone and telegraph lines.

THE people of the town are invited to assemble at the fountain in the public square on Thursday evening, Christmas eve, where the usual Christmas carols will be sung. Everybody is asked to be out and help make the occasion a georgeous one. Singing from 7 to 7.30.

THE people of Church Hill and vicinity are to be congratulated upon their generous spirit in coming to the aid of the suffering Belgians in such a magnificent and substantial manner. At the bazaar and supper, held theer last week, about $180 was cleared.

THE stores in Chestertown and throughout the county warrant the persistent effort of the NEWS in trying to induce our people to deal at home. They are stocked with every-day needs and dainty novelties at prices moderate and attractively presented.

DR. BARRETT AND WIFE will accept the congratulations of the NEWS on their fiftieth wedding anniversary. May the day bring golden hours unto hearts that beat as one and every year more closely twine there faithful hearts to the Master kind. He has been asked to return to Chestertown for another year by his congregation and many friends.

THE State Tax Commission has instructed the County Commissioners that they can add any assessment of property to this year's levy which had been overlooked or omitted in any way, when the levy was struck. For instance, if John Jones had built a stable and completed same previous to June, 1914, that stable could be added to this year's assessment.

AN interesting bit of news from Wicomico is that there is a possibility of a fight in the primaries next spring between the friends of Congressman Price and those of former State Senator Brewington. Many people have thought for several years that such a fight was bound to come, soon or late. Both men have substantial followings, and those who know them well have been expecting that their interests would clash.

THE CHRISTMAS SPIRIT.

Let's see, now; the Christmas spirit is one of "peace on earth, good will toward men," isn't it?

Fine! Let's live up to it. Let us go a bit further. Suppose we open our minds and hearts to this helpful idea 365 days a year and see how it works!

Suppose we deliberately refuse to harbor thoughts of hate and anger and revenge and prejudice and littleness.

Suppose we let the truth enter our souls that we are all brothers and sisters—here for a little while to do God's bidding and then to go home to Him and give an accounting of our conduct.

Would it be a glorious old world if all the shams and the hypocrites and the liars and the mean folks could know the wonderful power of a little bit of brotherly love?

We can make it such a world. You and I can begin right now to practice kindness toward each other. We can rise above life's pettiness and be big—big spiritually, morally, humanly.

Let's make it Christmas all the year round!

SUNDAY LID ON TIGHT

The Easton Star-Democrat says:

"Henceforth there must be no soda water, tobacco, cigars, cigarettes, nor candy sold on Sunday in Easton. Sheriff Sewell and Chief of Police Stoops have notified all of the drug stores in town and all venders of tobacco to that effect. The same thing holds good throughout the county.

"One of the problems which has faced the Easton officers was to bring the Greeks who run candy stores within the bounds of the Sunday laws. Quite recently Sheriff Sewell closed the store of John Conomos and Chief Stoops detected Peter Trifillis in the act of selling chances on cans of tobacco on a Sunday. The chief says that these stores have openly violated the law in spite of frequent warnings.

"The action of the police was taken early in the week and, so far as violations of the Sunday laws are concerned the town has been gone through with a fine-tooth comb. 'Hereafter,' says the chief, 'the Sunday laws must be observed to the letter.'"

We have been asked why this law is not enforced in Kent county. Our information is to the effect that a test case was made before our local court some years ago when the Tolchester Co. was [illegible] for selling ice cream on Sunday. [illegible] Court held that ice cream was a [illegible] food there [illegible] sold on Sun[illegible]

THE Cecil papers report that William P. Constable and States Attorney Henry L. Constable have been appointed counsel for the Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Railroad there, succeeding the late Frederick T. Haines and Ex-Governor Austin L. Crothers. When it is recalled how the late Albert Constable, father of the appointees, used to prosecute cases against this same road the above item is doubly interesting.

FOR the benefit of the property owners in Chestertown and Kent county, and to clear up some misapprehensions, we would state that the property assessments in this county were all before the county commissioners as the Board of Control and Review, and passed upon by them and their attorney. The State Tax Commission state that the assessments in Chestertown on land are higher than in any other town in the State. On the Peninsula the average is $50 per front foot, while in Chestertown the assessment is as high as $125 per foot!

IN another column is noted the order of the State Health Board and of the intention of the Chestertown Water Board looking toward the carrying out of this order. To do this will require from ten to fifteen thousand dollars And for what purpose? The present water supply at the last test proved to be good. The Health Board said that it might become polluted from drainage. Then let the Health Board require proper receptacles at all closets along the valley, require houses on a sewer to connect with same. Then this prospective pollution will be avoided and our town saved this ten or fifteen thousand dollars.

Surely the Water Board are not justified in making such an expenditure without first calling a public meeting of the tax-payers and laying before them the facts in their possession.

REPUBLICAN PROTEST.

Judge Leser, the Republican member of the State Tax Commission, has filed a protest against the payment of salaries to Messrs. E. M. Hammond and William W. Beck as general counsel to the Commission. He claims that the law authorizes only one general counsel, that they are constitutionally ineligible for the office being members of the General Assembly which created the office and that no counsel is required. The whole matter has been referred to Attorney General Poe who will give an opinion as soon as possible.

If this Board has not the right nor the need of counsel then here are some others which are put in the same class: County Commissioners, School Board, Election Supervisors, Police Board of Baltimore city, Election Supervisors of Baltimore city, Liquor License Board of Baltimore city, Sheriff of Baltimore city, State Insurance Commissioner, State Bank Commissioner, State Accident Board, State Roads Commission, State Board of Health, in addition to the State Tax Commission and the Public Service Commission. Then there are various boards, which, out of the funds they have in hand, employ lawyers, either by the year or on special occasion, such as the Penitentiary Board, the House of Correction Board, the Sabillasville board and the various other hospital boards. In addition to this the State Roads Commission, whenever there is need, employs special counsel in the various counties

Further, there are from time to time appointed commissions to build this or investigate that, and nearly all of them have found some way to have counsel.

If the Republicans want to make an issue of the State Tax Commisson's counsel, then why not include the whole State and County Boards.

$15,000 Insurance Paid Mrs. Jarrell Fifteen Days After Fire, by Continental Insurance Co.

CHESTERTOWN, MD, Dec. 10, 1914.

To James G. Beck, Agent
Continental Fire Insurance Co.,
Chestertown, Md.

Dear Sir: I beg to acknowledge the receipt of four drafts, aggregating fifteen thousand dollars, drawn on the Continental Fire Insurance Co. of New York, which is in full payment of all Continental policies on my home, which was destroyed by fire on the morning of November 25th.

I also wish to thank you and the adjuster of the Continental Insurance Co. for the prompt and satisfactory manner in which you have handled this insurance, adjusted same and paid the loss.

Just two days after the fire you had the Continental adjuster, Mr. Rogers, on the scene, and just 15 days after the fire I received the full insurance of fifteen thousand dollars held by the Continental Fire Insurance Company of New York.

It is very evident to me that where you can caused to be adjusted and paid so promptly a loss of this size, that the insuring public may feel more than satisfied when the insurance is placed in your hands and the property covered by Continental policies.

Yours very truly,
(Signed) MRS. E. F. S. JARRELL.

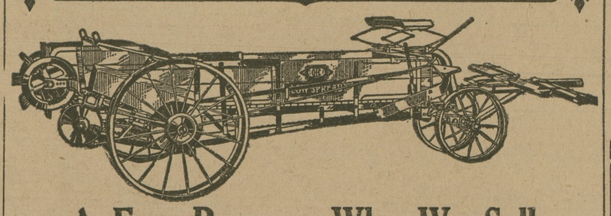
INTERNATIONAL HARVESTER MACHINES



A Few Reasons Why We Sell Low Spread Manure Spreaders

JUST a few words about the correct position and construction of the Low Spread beater. Instead of being directly over the end of the apron, where the manure would crowd under it and clog it, the Low Spread beater is placed a few inches to the rear of the apron, while the teeth on the lowest bars extend below it. The manure is caught at the top of the beater. It cannot crowd below the beater or clog it. There is no throwing off of large bunches of manure—the spread is always even.

The large size and strength of the beater prevents winding of unrotted straws or corn stalks. The teeth are of steel, square and chisel pointed. They cut into shreds all kinds of manure. Thorough pulverizing of the manure and even spreading are secured under practically all conditions.

This spreader will mean money to you. Come in and see the one we have set up on our sample floor awaiting your inspection.
