Monumental Golfers Receive Trophies, Map Plans at Annual Award Dinner

Plans to renew the legal fight for more adequate golf course facilities highlighted the annual tournament banquet of the Monumental Golf Association, held Wednesday in the dining room of Clubs Barbecue on Penna. Ave.

Expressing determination to have a course equal to others in the city, Henry Parks urged full support of the NAACP which is now in on the case.

Samuel Stewart was awarded the Monumental Club Championship while James Brashears and William Johnson took runners-up honors. Each member of the women's club received a new golf ball to start the coming season.

Others awarded trophies were: Interclub Team Champions, Archie Bell, captain; Earl Spriggs, Cliff Carter, James Brashears, Will Johnson and Robert McGuinn. In the Monumental Handicap Match Play, James Brashears took top honors with Askew Gatewood as runner up. Second flight, Norman Wallace, with William Johnson as medalist. Sam Stewart, low gross.

Johnson-Spruill Win

The two-ball foursome champs award went to Adga Johnson and Earl Spruill, Louis Weaver and William Dixon were runners-up, while Harry Carroll and Cliff Tarter took third place.

In the Baltimore Four-Ball Championship Match, William Johnson and James Brashears took top honors, with Frank Cook and Walter Burke runners-up. The second flight of this match ended with William Wright and Joseph Sembly in front trailed by Harry Carroll and E. H. Brown Jr.

Medalists were William Dixon and Norman Wallace.

Burke Gets President's Cup

Walter Burke captured the president's cup, runner-up was Norman Edwards, William Dixon won third place and Adga Johnson, medalist.

The Maryland State Open Championship award went to William Brown of Washington, D.C., Frank Cooke was fourth flight winner.

Walter Burke capped the Senior Championship tournament, William Wright was runner-up, Harry Carroll, third place, and Nathan Carroll, fourth.

The Hole-in-One Club trophy went to Leon Lewis and Carl Parker. In the Middle Atlantic Open Championship the Monumental Club almost made a clean sweep, again took highest honors. In addition to his trophies, Stewart was awarded a special plaque.

For faithful service to the club, Robert Wallace was given a special award, presented by Henry Parks.

SONNY BURTON, captain of the Parker-Gray High School eleven of Alexandria, Va., which defeated Douglass, 12-0, here last Friday.

Don't Worry About Buddy, Coach Says He's Okay

CHICAGO (ANP) — Ray Eliot, coach of the Illinois football team and Buddy Young's tutor, denied here Monday that the sensational Chicago sophomore is a "flop" in 1946 competition.

Answering a question sent to him at the speaker's table at the weekly Quarterback luncheon, Eliot said:

"First of all, let me say that Young is not a flop. Young is a valuable and integral part of our football team. He is a marvelous boy, and I know how hard he is trying to live up to the great things expected of him. I hate to hear such criticism of college athletes."

The coach pointed out that they have received hr mail dozens of plays, charts and diagrams which tell them how to "get Young loose." He declared that Young was great in 1944, being listed as the third top ground gainer in the country and leader in runs over 60 yards.

"People criticize the way we use him, but do you know that almost without exception we're using Young on the same plays which sprung him in 1944?

"There's been talk, too, about Young not getting the cooperation of the other boys. There is no truth in that. He is one of the most popular boys on the squad."

To back up his statement about Young's playing ability, Coach Eliot reminded the gathering that Grange himself scored only six touchdowns in his final collegiate season, only three against Big Nine rivals.

Bennett Faces Zalter Tonight

Howard Bennett, local middleweight star, faces one of the sternest tests of his career tonight (Friday) when he meets Solly Zalter, Canadian 160-pound titleholder, in the Garden Athletic Club's eight-round fight feature at the Baltimore Gardens.

Zalter will be displaying wares here for the first time, but a star-studed record attests to his class. Only 20 years old, the Canadian middleweight king has defeated a long list of topnotchers on his way to the crown.

The possessor of a dynamite punch in either hand, Solly has the equipment to end a bout with dramatic suddeness. Bennett, however, is no slouch in the slugging department, which all adds up to a bout crammed with action when the paid meet Friday night.

Willie Alexander, Chester, Pa., will clash with Joey Longo, popular local battler, in a six-round test. Another supporting six-rounder and three four-round events will round out the show.

Ken Dixon, Morgan Frosh, Wins YMCA Cross-Country

WASHINGTON

Kenneth Dixon, Morgan State College freshman, and John Patterson, Dunbar High School, shared individual honors in the annual Twelfth St. YMCA cross-country run Saturday, winning the trans-city race in the senior and junior divisions, respectively.

Howard University took top honors in the senior division by placing men third, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth for 29 points, while Cardozo grabbed the team laurels in the junior class.

The Clerks, paced by Horace Staples, who finished second, also took fifth, seventh, tenth, and twelfth places for a 36-point total.

Armstrong Second

Morgan also took second place with Paul Bond finishing behind Dixon, but trailed Howard in the team scoring with 38 tallied. Storer College of Harpers Ferry, W.Va., and the YMCA followed.

In the junior division, Armstrong was second with 33 points, with Dunbar, third, 49, and Phelps Vocational, 98.

Dixon, making his first appearance in the local run, took the lead at the outset and never relinquished it. At the one-quarter mark, going into Howard Place off Georgia Ave., the bespectacled Morgan harrier had a city block lead on the 60 competitors.

Ex-Philly Ace

The former Philadelphia schoolboy mile sensation maintained the advantage the rest of the way and coasted down 12th St. into the homestretch with plenty to spare. He was clocked in 22 minutes, 25 seconds.

Patterson led the pack for one half the way, but fell behind as Albert Ethridge took over, but regained sufficient power to outlast Ethridge and Staples to win in 16 minutes, 25 seconds over the shorter distance.
