XMAS IN CHURCHES.

Sunday was observed as Christmas day in Christ M. P. Church and Sunday school. Dr. Graham preached a splendid sermon in the morning and the choir rendered specially fine music. The choir comprised Mrs. W. F. Jarrell, Mrs. J. H Sides, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Bowers, Misses Hope Sappington, Edith Fallowfield, Marghuerita Dodd, Ida Smith, A. L. Sparks, W. Hague, Fred. G. Usilton, Miss Clara Usilton, organist.

At night the carols were sung by the school accompanied by an orchestra, viz., Kemp Bordley and Warren Hurlock, violins; Foster Cannon, trombone; Arthur Bacon, cornet; Miss Clara Usilton, organist, and never did the school sing better. It sounded like a big oratorio society. The program was in charge of Misses Rebecca McFeely, Hope Sappington, Bessie Wheatley and Maude Duyer. Addresses were made by Norris Reed, Lillian Sheats, Katharine Lambert and Walter Barnes. The "Evergreen" was presented by Harriett Reed, Dorothy Woodal, Flossie Kent, Amy Wheat, Mary Jones, Catharine Nickerson, Sarah Coleman, Catharine Elliott. "The Christmas Window" was a pretty little play presented by Evelyn Russell, Helen Kendall, Dora Wilkins, Irene, Edna and Vernon Kirby, Grace Whiteley, Virginia Nicholson, Wm. Parrott, Dudley Stafford, Harry Russell, Thos. Elliott. The selections by orchestra were a feature of the evening.

The Sunday school treat was held in the school room Tuesday evening under the direction of Jos. N. Wheatley, Mrs. C. N. Satterfield, Misses Fannie Baker, Rose Duyer, Mrs. S. R. Matthews. The surprises to the teachers were enjoyed by all.

The M. E School also enjoyed their treat on Tuesday evening.

Tuesday under the direction of Miss Isabel Beck the primary department of the Sunday School of Immanuel P. E. Church held an interesting playlet entitled, "Catechism and the Child." The annual Christmas treat and tree was also held.

The Fact Remains

No amount of misrepresentation by the peddlers of alum baking powders, no juggling with chemicals, or pretended analysis, or cooked-up certificates, or falsehoods of any kind, can change the fact that

Royal Baking Powder has been found by the official examinations to be of the highest leavening efficiency, free from alum, and of absolute purity and wholesomeness.

Royal Baking Powder is indispensable for making finest and most economical food.

ROCK HALL NOTES.

Many hearts in this section have deeply sorrowed for the family of the late James R. Coleman, whose tragic end came last week.

Among the holiday sojourners here were Rev. and Mrs. David J. Moore, at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Casey.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Porter, of Baltimore, are at the home of Mrs. Porter's mother, Mrs. Janie McKivitt, Green Lane.

Our up-to-date merchants report a fair Christmas trade, notwithstanding the slump in the oyster industry.

The leaves are rustling and many resolutions are made. Let's keep them nt act.

Rev. Mr. Prettyman was taken quite sick Saturday or Sunday. Rev. D. J. Moore occupied the M. E. pulpit Sunday night. There was no service Sunday morning. Mr. Prettyman is now much better.

Fraternal Hall has just been repapered and repainted and is now one of the first-class halls in this town. Messrs. J. R. Diehl, of this place, and Walter Joiner, of Baltimore, did the work.

This section is very much incensed because of ugly reports in the city papers. In fact, the whole outcome of the murder case is most nauseous to our people.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

WHEREAS, it has pleased our Heavenly Father to remove from our midst our neighbor and friend, as well as member of this Grange, Bro WILLIAM M. CLENDANIEL, and we realize that never again in this life shall we hear his voice or look upon his kindly countenance, or enjoy his genial company; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we bow in humble submission to the will of our Heavenly Father who doeth all things well.

Resolved, That we, the members of Kennedyville Grange No. 241, express to his wife and family our sincere and deep sympathy in this hour of sorrow and grief.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased and to the

To Our Subscribers.—Look at the little yellow label on your paper and see how far your subscription to the NEWS is paid. If the date on your paper is Jan, 1 13, it shows you owe $1.00. If you have moved let us know your old and new address.

MEDDERS & Co., of Still Pond, will accept the thanks of the KENT NEWS compositors and editors for a fine box of Christmes goodies. May their 1914 business exceed that of 1913 and may our relations be as ever mutually pleasant and agreeable.

WE are informed by Mr. Max Cohen, manager of the Globe Clothing Store, which was badly damaged by fire recently, that he will resume business as soon as the store room is repaired.

WE have just received from Messrs. W. S. & A. M. Culp one of their beautiful calendars. The scene is "The Notification of Washington of His Election as President." It is a reproduction of an oil painting by the famous artist, John Ward Dunsmore. Mr. Culp believes in Washington.

ABOUT the busiest people around Chestertown these days are the telegraph operators, Messrs. Legg, Joiner, Russell Wheatley and Lewin Howard. They are at work night and day giving the city papers an account of the Kent county murder from their own correspondents.

CENTREVILLE now has 35 cases of scarlet fever.

THE big store at Rock Hall conducted by Mr. Kramer has been sold to Mr. J. M. Blaustein, who has been manager for some months. We bespeak for the new manager success.

BECAUSE of an altercation with Mr. William Dadds, a Chestertown grocer, George Deans, a Santiago negro, is in Chestertown jail charged with assault on Mr. Dadds; the latter's ear having been bitten in the fracas. Mr. Dadds had some trouble Monday morning; in the afternoon the quarrel was resumed, ending in a general mix-up, over some chickens.

Lucile Godwin, only child of Prof. and Mrs. R. C. Godwin, formerly of Crumpton, aged 18 years, died Dec. 26th.
