VOL. 76 — CHESTERTOWN, MD. SATURDAY, JUNE 13, 1914 — NO 12

THE CHESTERTOWN BANK and THE GALENA BANK always mindful of the interest of its patrons, have decided to

Pay 4 Per Cent Interest on deposits in the Savings Department to take effect as of March 1, 1914.

We trust that our friends who are not doing business with us will appreciate this liberal offer and start an account with us.

We especially appeal to our friends up the county in and around Galena, who have a bank right at their door, and if they will stop and think of the advantage and the prestige it gives to the community, we feel that they will be glad to support the Institution, have you ever thought of it this way, consider it, and see if you will not agree with us that we have a right to ask you for your business.

Your purse strings will loosen as you pass our store and see the windows "crowded with bargains."

Let us suggest to you, Mr. Farmer, the early selection of your needs for this Spring. The time to make this selection is NOW, the place is HERE.

Note the prices—pick out the ones you like—and have them put aside for you until you are ready for them.

If you have never dealt with us, it is your fault; but if you deal with us just once and do not continue, it is our fault. So come in to see us and give us a chance.

We enjoy showing our goods just as much as you do seeing them, and we will see if we cannot show you some bargains.

We are yours for business.

FINE MUSICAL FESTIVAL.

The Chestertown Choral Society Make Their First Appearance Before An Appreciative Audience in the Lyceum—Mr. Chapman a Born Leader—Uplifting Selections.

There have been presented in Chestertown many cantatas, plays, &c., but it remained for the Chestertown Choral Society to prerent an evening of music which, as a whole, has never been equaled here. It was the first appearance of this club which is made up of young and middle-aged singers who mastered the difficult selections with rare skill. The renditions were superb while the audience was one of refinement and appreciativeness who encored the numbers with expert distinction. The program will give to our readers the selections with the authors who are the best in the world of music:

PART I.

1. Spring Song ..... Gounod
Miss Mabel Toulson, Accompanist.
2. a The Hunter's Horn (from "La Sannambula") ..... Bellini
b Hunting Song ..... Mendelssohn
Mrs. Wm. Walter Chapman, Accompanist.

6. Hail, Bright Abode (from Tannhauser) ..... Wagner
Accompanist, Miss Mabel Toulson.

To the leader, Mr. William Walter Chapman, too much credit cannot be given. He is thoroughly fitted for the position of conductor and gave to the society an enthusiastic and undivided leadership, bringing the singers into a perfectly harmonious body which yielded to his baton as readily as the clay to the potter.

The solos, piano duet, and violin solo were fine examples of the ability of individuals of the Society.

The members of the Choral on this evening were as follows:

Conductor—William Walter Chapman.

Sopranos—Mrs. Wm. Speitberger, Mrs. Fred. S. Russell, Mrs. James H. Sides, Mrs. D. B. Ford, Mrs. Merrick Clements, Mrs. W. H. McKee, Mrs. R.
