M'MULLEN IS MAKING "HIT" ON THE STUMP

Mountain Man's Good Humor Shown In Canvass Among Voters.

From Baltimore News:

Reports drifting into Baltimore from the political battlefields of the State unite in declaring that Hugh A. McMullen of Alleghany is making a "hit" with the audiences he is facing.

Harrington is a sledge-hammer speaker, adroit and practiced in playing upon the feelings and prejudices of his auditors, and with a Fitz-James air of earnestness and defiance; Ritchie is direct and polished, and something of a raconteur. McMullen has not much of a "carrying voice," but he has started out with an entertaining little speech, comes with the presitge of being a much-loved man in Alleghang, with a fine personal record and a successful business career.

He always tells his auditors to take care of their local candidates first and then vote for him. He has the sturdy "set-up" of the mountain man, a good humor that seems proof against the petty vexations of campaigning, and his face is always wreathed in smiles.

"Respected by all who know him," says the Cumberland Press, "and his friends are legion, Hugh McMullen is a man admirably fitted for the office to which he aspires. If he is nominated, the fact is certain—he will command one of the largest votes ever given a Democrat in Western Maryland."

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

In the death of MRS HANNAH GOODING, Betterton M. E. Church, the Ladies Aid Society and a wide circle of friends have lost a most faithful member and a valued friend. As a member of the church and the Aid Society, she was always closely identified with every plan for their progress and welfare, being actively engaged so long as physical health permitted.

With flowers, words and kind deeds she showed the sweetness of her christian spirit and the thoughtfulness of her mind and heart for every one, and especially those in trouble and sorrow. Therefore be it

Resolved, That we will cherish with loving remembrance her noble christian life among us. That we extend our sympathy and love to her bereaved children in their great sorrow and commend them to the blessed Saviour who alone can comfort in our times of greatest loss. Be it also

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family, a copy spread on the minutes of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Betterton M. E. Church and a copy sent to the county papers for publication.

PICTURES OF OUR TOWN AND PEOPLE ON CHAUTAUQUA SCREEN.

This summer there is to be an especially novel feature of Chautauqua, a feature that will give you a chance to see yourself in a picture on the screen of the Chautauqua platform. Mr. Robert Carels, an expert camera man, has been engaged to come here on the opening day and take chronophotographs of the Chautauqua parade, prominent buildings and places of interest about town and views of the crowds in and about the big tent. These pictures will be shown on the screen on the opening night.

A LIKABLE SINGER.

When Colangelo's Band comes to our Chautauqua our people will have the opportunity of hearing a great soprano singer whose success on the concert platform has left her unspoiled and who is still deeply interested in "homey" things. She is Signorina Ruth Elliotti, and she isn't one bit ashamed to express her liking for the things that are close to the hearts of those whose lives lie outside the circle of the professional world.

She is a sort of "Jack (or Jill) of all trades" and is a very useful being to have around the house, for she can mend anything, from a screen door to the parlor clock. Chemical, electrical or mechanical devices of any kind interest her deeply.

This charming soprano is a baseball fan and a most ardent "rooter" for the Boston Braves She comes naturally by her interest in the game, as her father was one of the original "Tri-Mountain" baseball team and was secretary of the club. Many of the older baseball enthusiasts will remember the rather famous "Tri-Mountain" teams of other days. She also likes horses and dogs—big dogs, not the poodle kind.

SIGNORINA RUTH ELLIOTTI.

Signorina Elliotti sings in five languages besides English, in addition to two or three different dialects. She plays—and plays them well, too—the piano, pipe organ, mandolin and guitar and does fairly well with drums and fife. The pastime that interests her most is embroidery, and if there are any ladies in her audiences when she appears on our Chautauqua who know any new stitches or designs Miss Elliotti will forget the platform, the band, everything, and talk embroidery.
