Honest Values

AT

BRAMBLE, KILBOURN & NOLAND'S

If you read the papers carefully you may have concluded that this store is somewhat remiss in its duty in having nothing to sell at less than its worth. Much as we regret that we have to ask $5 for $5 articles, and so on up to $10 and $15 for $10 and $15 articles, we've consoled by the knowledge that no other store gives so much value for the money as we do, and we have the further satisfaction of doing a STRAIGHT business with STRAIGHT goods at STRAIGHT prices.

Any man who wants good goods and his money's worth can come here and choose from the largest stock and widest variety in the county—every article here is high-grade and fully guaranteed. Step in today or any day and see the goods that we are selling. Compare them with the "Cut Rate" offerings you see advertised. If you don't find better articles here for less money than elsewhere, then we wont expect your trade.

Furthermore, we accord the same service and attention to your "phone" orders, or your servants or children, as we do to you in person. We seek the reputation of being the dependable store. Won't yon let us "show you"?

WHY YOU ARE NERVOUS

The nervous system is the alarm system of the human body.

In perfect health we hardly realize that we have a network of nerves, but when health is ebbing, when strength is declining, the same nervous system gives the alarm in headaches, tiredness, dreamful sleep, irritability and unless corrected, leads straight to a breakdown.

To correct nervousness, Scott's Emulsion is exactly what you should take; its rich nutriment gets into the blood and rich blood feeds the tiny nerve-cells while the whole system responds to its refreshing tonic force. It is free from alcohol.

THAT LITTLE CURL

There was a little girl
Who had a little curl
Which hung right down her forhead;
And when she was good, etc., etc.
[Nursery rhyme.]

About the little girl—
Who had the little curl,
They used to tell me years and years ago.
But, the name of that small girl,
And the color of the curl,
Nobody ever seemed or cared to know.

Sometimes in fancy bright,
I see that little sprightly;
And the pretty little curl—like 'twas gold—
Just trailing o'er her nose,
Its beauty to disclose;
Disheveled by the breezes—gently bold.

My arms in welcome dart,
To clasp her to my heart,
And place upon that curl a loving kiss.
I sigh to think that time,
Will ever make this rhyme
And echo, and a dream of wondrous bliss

'Tis years and years ago
When she I used to know,
Left naught to me but this her golden curl.
My heart that once was glad,
Is lonely now, and sad,
When mem'ry gives to me my little girl.

I see again that curl—
To me, a priceless pearl:—
The tangle in the ringlets oft times see.
I kiss that little face,
And feel that last embrace,
When dreaming brings my darling back to me.

Wrightson, his brothers are the Rev. James O. Wrightson, pastor of East Baltimore Station, Methodist Episcopal Church; John S., George and Wilford D. Wrightson, of Baltimore, and Charles Wrightson, of Prince George's county. He also leaves three sisters, Misses Margaret and Stella Wrightson, of Baltimore, and Mrs. Clarence Haddaway, of Chestertown, Kent county.
