Les Originettes Aid Delinquents

Les Originettes recently held a baby popularity contest at Sharp Street Methodist Church for the benefit of delinquent girls of Maryland.

Bessie Gladden, sponsored by the Carthaginians, won first prize; Swazanne Smith, by the Save Set, second; Merle Dorsey, by Mrs. T. Finch, third prize.

Other participants were Kendall Crawford, by Royalettes; Bruce Moore, Lilliput Nursery School; Howard Bess, Les Vicountesses; Carolyn Mason, Mrs. T. Mason; Albert Lawson, Mrs. Inez Bell; Shirley Ann Smith, Mrs. Alice Smith; Thomas Royster, Mrs. Royster; and Jerome Wallace, Mrs. Wallace. Each baby recieved a gift.

The Townsmen and the Pointettias gave cash donations.

Mrs. Muriel Johnson, superintendent of the Maryland Training School for Girls, delivered the address, "Meeting the Needs of Children."

The chorus of the 6A and 6B classes of School No. 132, under the direction of Miss Carolyn Barnes, sang. Miss Pearle Wetterton was guest soloist. Mrs. M. Carter is president of Les Originettes.

Guardsmen's Supper Dance Gay, Informal Entertainment

with Lula Jones Garrett

By R. A. JENKINS

That suave group of Baltimore Guardsmen chalked up another in their long list of social successes Saturday eve with an informal supper dance at Morgan Hall.

The novelty invitations by telegram attracted guests from New York, Philadelphia, Newark, Jersey City, Washington, Chicago and Los Angeles. Upon arrival, they were led to their host's table where refreshments were served all evening.

With music provided by Bubby Johnson's orchestra, guests danced until the wee hours. Around midnight, caterers served a turkey dinner with all the trimmings.

BLACK FROCKS POPULAR

The smart black sequin-studded frocks worn by most of the feminine pulchritude in attendance was quite in tune with the Guardsmen shields which set off the decorations.

Hosts were Warren Weaver, president; Howard G. Collins, Paul Chester, Richard Cummings, Charles E. Brown, Stephen Moore, Donald G. Murray, Ulysses Glover, William H. Lee Jr., David T. Mason, Edward Williams, Buddy Smith, Junky Wood, Clifton S. Murray, Walter T. Edmonds, and Robert P. Diggs.

From Quakertown came Bernice Carter, Lorraine Farmer, Yok Bryant, Estella Younger, Charlie Peace, Rita Davis, Vivian Carney, and John T. Nicholson;

AMONG OUT-OF-TOWNERS

The Capital was represented by Roger Johnson, Frank Irving, Alberta James, the Tim Irvings, Cecil Barlow, Effie Crenshaw, John L. Holloway, Windy Wallace, William Blake, Elouise Williams, Judy Brooks, Dorothy Bryant, William S. Thompson, Norma and Jean Wilkins, Joe Sewell;

From New York came Lola McDonald, Shirley Fletcher, Charles Dixon, Louise Lockett, Phil (Flash) Gordon, Sonny Bostick; from New Jersey, Carla Edwards of Jersey City, and Ocie (Tiger) Jordan of Newark.

Also about were Perry Jones of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Hughes Carter (former Ruth Mason) who have recently returned from a long stay on the West Coast and Florence Dennis of Los Angeles.

Many Localites

Localites included Marguerite Brown, the Ladd Sawyers, the Reid Stanleys, the Robert Ashbys, Dorothy Smith, Norman Wharton, James Gaskins, Helena Tomlin, Milton Armstrong, Frankie Murphy, James Wood, Albert Wood, Florence Dennis, Carolyn Murphy, the Wilfred Seabornes;

The Randolph Tuckers, the Dalbert Hardings, George Green, John Mantack, the Frank Philipses, Franklin Williams, the George Judes, the David Wrights, Marietta Pyles, Eula Wilkins, the Walter Grays, Estelle Lee, Thomas Lee, the Wendell Wilsons, Dr. Charles Woodland, the Harold Arnolds, the William Murphys, the Osborne Dixons, the Henry Wests, the Matthew Paynes, the Gabriel Maddoxes, the Louis Carters, John S. Brown, Ernest Johnson, William E. Jones;

Dr. J. C. Woodland, Ruth C. Mason, the Waverly Hendrickses, Briggy Neal, the Elmer Patterson, the Rollin Greers, the Luther Hardins, the Arthur Johnsons, the Wellington Rosses, the Walter Washingtons, the Bernard Grants, J. Vernon Hamilton, the James Murrays, the Yancy Whitakers, the George Grants, the Wilbur Stewarts;

James Gaskin, Milton Armstrong, the Randolph Tuckers, the Thomas Lees, the Wilfred Seabornes, the Edward Umphreys, Annette Johnson.

That Howard Spirit

The Howard University Alumni of Baltimore will stage a victory celebration at the Druid Health Center tonight (Friday), the Howard team having trounced Lincoln by a 7-6 score in the Thanksgiving Day classic.

Business will include reports by the football committee and the "atomic" committee, headed by Mrs. Gilbert Banfield and recently organized among the later Howard grads to sponsor beneficial projects.

Rousing cheers could be heard in the YMCA at the last alumni meeting when Howard cheerleaders Andrea Sparks, Edward Joell and Cleo Cade demonstrated how they would inspire the team to victory. They came over from Washington with an assistant coach, James Chambers.

This meeting was also attended by one of the oldest alumnae, Mrs. Emma H. Young, a graduate of the class of 1904. Local officers are Roy S. Bond, president; Mrs. Ruth Lighston, secretary; and Dr. Ralph Young, treasurer.

Club Women to Meet

The quarterly meeting of the Maryland League of Women's Clubs will be held at 2 p.m. on Saturday. The delegates representing fifty-one clubs will vote on changes to the Constitution and by-Laws during the business session as well as hear reports from officers and chairmen of committees.

Mrs. Muriel Johnson, superintendent of Maryland Training School for Girls and Hawaiha R. Harris, acting superintendent of Cheltenham School for Boys will outline some of the problems facing the State schools in institutional care for youngsters.

One of the six points of the program of the league is to visit, study and recommend action in regards to State institutions. Mrs. Ethel J. Day is chairman of the program committee. Mrs. Alice B. Arrington is president of the league.

GRAY-LONG MERGER

A recent merger was that of Alma L. Bell, the Pratt librarian, and Walter Gray, University of Pennsylvania student. The ceremony took place a week ago at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Johnson, friends of the bride.

Attended by Mrs. Edna G. Gray and Mrs. Johnson, the bride wore lime jersey with a corsage of yellow tearoses. Victor L. Gray stood as his brother's best man.

HOLIDAY PLANS

Plans for a Christmas party got under way during the meeting of the Chi Eta Phi Sorority to which Mazell Dickerson and Hazel Bailey played hosts. The president, Fanda Friend, made a report on the boule which she attended this spring.

Present were Sorors Vivian Pendleton, Katie W. Fernandis, Anita Henson, Lilyan F. Slater, Agnes C. Pilgrim, Bernardine Harrison, Mary Lockerman, and Beatrice Skinner.

Coppin Teachers College notes include items that Dorothy Johnson spent the week end in Edesville, Md. Ruth Weaver saw the Army-Navy clash in Philly.

Maryann Jones and Delores Ashby spent a gay week end in the Big City.

SADIE HAWKINS DOINGS

Many Coppinites, clad in dungarees and sport shirts, were seen at the Regents' Sport Club Sadie Hawkins Day dance.

These included Juanita Gales, Florine Allen, Marion Idlet, Lillie Gilliard, Bertha Ralph, Allene Hall, Bettye Matthews, Virginia Giles and Zerita Thrower.

Gloria Roberts was also a recent party hostess. She entertained Josephine Beale, Josephine Harris, Audrey Quarles, Norma Tinsley, Pearl Tucker, Marian Idlet, Bishop Robinson, Charles Haywood, Charles Humphries, Robert Fussel anl John Holmes.

SOCIAL SMATTERINGS

Formal opening of the Casa Vina Club lounge in what was formerly the York Hotel Blue Room will take place tonight.

Hosts are Dr. Henry Woodland, Richard Cummings, Dr. Roy C. Johnson, Waverly Hendricks, John Wood, Douglass Henderson, Dr. Arthur L. Johnson and Dr. Orris G. Walker.

The newly organized ladies' auxiliary to the Phi Beta Sigma fraternity was hosted by Juanita G. Hill at the Virginia Hall apartments. Its purpose is to help the frat raise funds for the Cheltenham Training School for Boys.

Attending the meeting were Mesdames Catherine Green, prexy; Katherine Johnson, Elizabeth Colton, William Buckner, Boyd Holden and Geneva R. Woof.

Yvette Murphy is tucked in at Provident Hospital, having recently undergone an operation. Doing nicely.

J. Arnett Frisby, William B. Day and the Rev. C. Baker Pearle of the local chapter have jaunted off to Pittsburgh to attend the board meeting of the national Frontiers' Club.

The Lavinia Players, a teen-age group headed by Gwendolyn Giles, are sightseeing in New York, along with their sponsor.

Mrs. Vivian Allerne flew to La-Follette, Tenn., to see her mother on Thursday.

What is there to the report that Dorothea Haywood, widow of Eddie Haywood, the sweepstakes winner, has made a recent trip to the altar?

George A. Parker, attorney and national president of the Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, and Mrs. Parker of Washington, who were in the city on Sunday attending the memorial service for Dr. Carson Johnson, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Woodhous.

Mr. Woodhous is spending the week end in Brooklyn, N.Y., attending a regional board meeting of the Eastern District of the fraternity.
