Gateway to the Gayway

By GEORGE D. TYLER

A fine crowd of all elbow-benders continues to enjoy the hospitable air of SUGAR HILL. The VILMA features the finest array of quality products on the Stroll.

Jimmy Cann's orchestra is running amuck at the UBANGI, where Prop Whirley is back in circulation, but taking it easy.

The SPOT, ASTORIA and ORLEANS are shooting the works on their holiday supplies. The ALHAMBRA continues to cater to a fastidious crowd that seeks charm, courtesy and a sedate atmosphere while sipping.

Kitty's on the Ball

Kitty Warren, the gal, won her laurels at the Blue Room and renewed acquaintances at the Orleans since returning from Dee Cee, is on the ball at GAMBY'S, along with the Mosley lad and a fine cast of entertainment dispensers.

After romping at the Elks' Home on Tuesday night the AVENUE employees swung back to the Stroll to welcome a group of new amateurs on Wednesday night.

Pop Amos continues to serve as manager of the DIAMOND SUBWAY, formerly one of the town's top show bistros. Across the street at the OLDE MILL there is a four-day policy in effect. Ditto at ED'S cocktail lounge.

Vickie is now at Jones Cafe, having switched here from HENRY'S, the cozy Myrtle Avenue and Saratoga Street rendezvous, where Christine continues to serve, and SAM'S CAFE'S popularity continues to grow as Brer Stewart surrounds himself with a staff of employees prominent in night life.

231st Troop TC Truck Bn. to Be Federally Inspected

Action Preliminary to Outfit's Being Recognized as Part of National Guard

The personnel, records and quarters of the 321st Troop Transportation Corps Truck Bn. are to be inspected by War Department officials next Wednesday, preparatory to the outfit's being Federally recognized as a National Guard unit.

The battalion, under Major William H. Brady, has already been recognized by the Maryland State Military Department.

Two Truck Companies

The battalion is to replace the 10th Battalion, Maryland State Guard, and will comprise two companies. One, the 727th, will be commanded by Capt. Melvin T. Cade, the other, the 728th, will be led by Capt. Bedford Bentley.

In order to attract select material to fill existing vacancies for officers in both companies, an extensive recruiting and publicity campaign is being planned.

May Go on Air

Officers in charge hope to have a daily broadcast over a local radio station and plan to flood the city with posters. Booths with uniformed attendants may be placed strategically in the various sections of the city.

Enlisted men who were discharged from the Army in one of the three top paying ranks have the best chance to receive a commission. Candidates must be in the 21-30 age group and should have overseas service.

Get Army Pay

The pay will be the same as in the Regular Army for the time on duty. The unit meets every Wednesday in the Richmond Market Armory, Howard and Biddle Sts., from 3 to 10:30 p.m.

Persons interested in joining are requested to report to the armory on Wednesday or Friday evenings during the hours mentioned.

Gordon Given Job as DPR Leader

Frank A. (Pickles) Gordon, Morgan State College graduate of 1939 and recently discharged Army officer, is the newest addition to the Department of Public Recreation.

The veteran, who worked up through the ranks from private to first lieutenant during the war, serves as recreation leader at the Coleridge-Taylor School No. 122, during the day. In the evening, he supervises activities at the Douglass Homes and Carver Vocational School.

Former Police Officer

Gordon is the person whose sudden dismissal from the Baltimore Police Department caused so much controversy recently.

The eleventh officer to be named, Gordon was dropped in October, because "he failed to carry out an order."

It was recalled that a few days before the charge was lodged by Vice Chief Lt. Alexander Emerson, Gordon obtained evidence for a raid on a prosperous gambling den.

The officer was later ordered reinstated, but subsequently dismissed by Commissioner Hamilton R. Atkinson, because of a kidney ailment.

YWCA Club to Give Hard Luck Dance

The YAG's of the Madison Avenue YWCA include among their news items, the announcement of a Hard Luck Dance to be held Dec. 13 with Misses Anna Brown and Shirley Kess in charge.

Miss Dorine Fitzgerald was recently elected treasurer of the group. Miss Maryland Miller is chairman, and Mrs. Elmyria S. Hull, supervisor.

Post No. 14 Denied Liquor License

Turned down by the Liquor Board, officials of Walter Green Post, No. 14, American Legion, took into City Court, Monday, an application to sell light beer and wine at their headquarters, 1308 McCulloh St.

The application was protested before the board by the NAACP, Northwest Protective Association, and officials of Booker T. Washington Junior High School, located across the street from the post building.

City Court Judge J. Abner Sayler held the case under advisement after U. Theodore Hayes, adjutant, and Linwood Koger, former State vice commander of the legion, argued that the board's denial of the application was "unreasonable, arbitrary and capricious."

The board based its ruling upon the post's being located in what they termed a restricted zone since it said no new license could be granted.

Returns to Ave. Cafe

BOBBIE BOYD, shake stylist, who returns to the Avenue Cafe on Monday night for another engagement through popular demand. She will replace Mickey Barnett, tapster, in the floorshow lineup.

"Carmen Jones" Gives Way to Muriel Rahn, Says Tex. Critic

DALLAS, Tex.—Muriel Rahn, concert star, invaded Texas last week on a triumphant recital tour. Appearing in Dallas, Fort Worth, Houston, Corpus Christi, and San Antonio, Miss Rahn won a host of friends and well wishers as well as excellent press reviews.

Typical of the comment received by the singer was that of Patricia Peck of a Dallas daily, who said:

"Carmen Jones can now give way to Muriel Rahn. The erstwhile 'Carmen' of Billy Rose's restatement of the Bizet opera, emerged here last evening as a gifted and intelligent concert artist with a big soprano voice, full and sure at the top, and with a rich dark quality in the lower range."

"This," said Miss Rahn, "is what I've been hoping for. While I'm the happy over all the nice things said about my singing by everyone. I'm happier still over that line about 'Carmen Jones' gives way to Muriel Rahn.'

"You see it isn't that I'm not proud of the role, I loved every minute of it, but I wonder how long it will be before the public ceases to attach any importance to it and think of me as a concert personality."

Pianist to Lecture on Jazz at Bryn Mawr

PHILADELPHIA

Sammy Price, the Texan who is something of an authority on jazz, has been scheduled to give an informal lecture on that subject Dec. 11, 8:30 p.m., at Bryn Mawr College.

Although only in his 30's, Price is a musician and piano player in the old tradition, leaning toward blues and boogie woogie styles. He has written illustrative books on these two types of music.

Free Joe Louis Films Showing at Centers

Free movies of some of Joe Louis's most exciting fights are now making the rounds of the Lexington Street, Gilmor, Douglass and McCulloh Homes recreation centers, Leonard J. Wheatley, supervisor, Department of Public Recreation has announced.

The first hectic battle with Billy Conn and one of Joe's fights with Max Baer are in the series.
