Iowa Boys Raise Big Baby Beeves

At the recent Iowa State Fair 111 excellent baby beeves were exhibited by 99 members of the boys' and girls' clubs of the State. Charles Ryan, of Irwin, with his grade Angus steer "Reddie" was awarded the championship, while this same calf also won the premier honors in the grade Angus division. Charles' prize money amounted to $75. After the show the baby beeves were sold at auction, the animals averaging 967 pounds in and selling for an average price of $18.30 a hundredweight. Each calf brought an average of $177.08, or a total for the lot of $16,823.73. At the Sioux City Interstate Fair 39 baby beeves were exhibited by 35 members of boys' and girls' clubs. These animals were sold at auction for an average price of $187.49. the top price being $26 a hundred weight. Watson Davis, of Castana, won first place with a graded Angus steer, and captured second honors with another steer, and captured second honors with another steer in the fat Hereford class. Earl R. Buckland, of Mapleton, who won the championship on the baby beeves in 1917, exhibited four calves and won second, ninth and eleventh places in the special class and first, and second, and the champship in the fat Shorthorn class, making his total winning $85. These results indicate that the coming generation will uphold the honor of the Hawkeye State in banner beef production.

IN MEMORIAM

HESSNER.—In sad but loving remembrance of our dear Elizabeth, who left us November 25, 1909:

Nine years ago you left me,
How oft I miss your darling face,
But you left me to remember
None on earth can take your place.
Mother.

One who was always kind,
Who would always forgive and forget,
One with the purest of mind,
Who friendship and love never set,
She was the one with the soul devine,
Whose heart was constant and true
One who was the same all times,
Dear sister that was you.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

At a special meeting of the Betterton Chapter of the Epworth League of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the following action was taken:

Whereas, Our Heavenly Father has called from his earthly labors to his reward, our brother, Fountain Crew, is loyal and consistent member, and a prompt, thorough and painstaking official of the League, ever manifesting a deep interest in the spiritual welfare and progress of the Association, and

Whereas, Recognizing his sterling qualities as a Christian and a valued member of the Church and League as well as a useful and highly esteemed citizen, a kind and loving husband, and desiring to give public expression of the esteem in which he was held by his associates and colaborers in the Lord's Vineyard; Therefore, be it

Resolved, That we deeply mourn the passing from our midst of one so faithful and so helpful, and while we sincerely regret the loss, we rejoice in the knowledge that when the summons came it found him prepared and we take comfort in the thought that having drawn the curtain over the scenes of this life, he has joined the blessed society of the redeemed in Heaven, and be it

Resolved, That we tender our loving, heart-felt sympathy to the sorrow stricken widow of our departed brother and commend her for consolation to Him who doeth all things for the best and whose chastisements are dealt by a loving, tender and merciful hand.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be placed upon the records of the Epworth League, a copy be sent to the bereaved widow and that they be published in the county papers.

What is the difference between an OCULIST and an OPTOMETRIST?

The Oculist treats diseased eyes and fits glasses according to the laws of optics. The Optometrist uses the same means for detecting any disease, but does not treat, but refers to the Oculist or family Physician. The Optometrist fits glasses according to the laws of optics just the same as the Oculist, but without drugs or drops.
