VALUABLE JE

Wilbur W. Hubbard had an unusual experience Friday, at the old custom house, which he owns, and which he sometime ago remodeled, making a large apartment of it. On the occasion of the marriage of his daughter,, Miss Miriam, eight months ago, to Lieutenant George M. Morris, of Washington, the mother of the groom occupied an apartment in the Custom House. When she retired on the night of the wedding, she placed the handsome jewelry which she wore, including a diamond necklace and pin valued at between $500 and $1,000 in an envelope on the window sill in her room, intending to place it in its case before she retired. She inadvertently left the valuable parcel on the window sill and thought no more of it until she reached her home in Washington some days later.

Mr. Hubbard knew nothing of the occurance, as the lady regarded it as rather an indelicate thing to mention the loss. Last Saturday afternoon Mrs. A. E. Physick, a friend of the Hubbard family had occasion to go to the room occupied by the wedding guest, and while viewing an excursion of Christian Endeavorers from Baltimore, her eye fell upon the envelope. She picked it up, examined its contents, at once recognized their value, and immediately took it to Mr. Hubbard with the explanation that it had been found by her in the room in the Custom House. Mr. Hubbard remembered that the groom's mother had occupied the room on the occasion of his daughter's marriage, and that afternoon he called his guest over the phone and asked if the precious package belonged to her. She informed Mr. Hubbard that it did, and he forwarded it by registered mail to the lady at once.

This package had lain in the same place in that room for eight months, without any one detecting its valuable contents, and notwithstanding the fact that Mr. Hubbard had sent his servants to the room to clean, the envelope was not noticed by them, or any one else who had occasion to visit the room. Mr. Hubbard's guest was overjoyed when she learned of the recovery of her jewels.

A FINE COLLEGE

The attention of our readers is directed to the advertisement of Western Maryland College appearing in this issue. This institution located at Westminster, Md., begins its fifty-third year September 23rd, 1919. It has made a record for thoroughness and efficiency not excelled by any in the State. Its beautiful location in the highlands of Maryland, its excellent equipment in buildings and grounds, its well-trained faculty, its up-to-date courses of study, and its charges kept down to reasonable terms make it an attractive place to get an education.

In addition to the usual Classical, Scientific and Historical courses leading to the degree of Bachelor of Arts, there are supplementary courses in Music, Elocution, Oratory, Domestic Science and Pedagogy. Completion of this last-named course secures the certificate of the State Board of Education. A regular unit of the Reserve Officer Training Corps is established at the College, commanded by Captain L. H. Richmond, U. S. A., the government supplying uniforms and equipment.

We commend this institution to any of our readers who may be considering the question where is my boy or girl to go to College.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad remembrance of my dear son, HERBERT R. BECK, who died June 11, 1917.

Friends may think I'll soon forget him,
And my wounded heart be healed.
But they little know the sorrow
That's within my heart concealed.

Peaceful be thy rest my dear boy,
'Tis sweet to breathe thy name,
In life I loved you dearly,
In death I do the same.

BY HIS MOTHER.

On the hillside softly sleeping,
Far away from care and pain,
May thee rest in Jesus keeping,
For we hope to meet again.

'Tis sweet to be remembered,
And a pleasant thing to find,
Although you may be absent
You are still kept in our minds.

BY HIS SISTER HATTIE.

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Ford cars are important servants everywhere. They help the family enjoy life, bring the pleasures and advantages of the town within reach of the farmer and give practical service every day in country and town. They require a minimum of attention; any one can run a Ford and care for it, but it is better to have repairs and replacements taken care of by those who are familiar with the work and have the tools, the genuine materials, and skilled men to do the work promptly. We pledge Ford owners the reliable Ford service with real Ford parts and standard Ford prices.

PRESERVING— in a cool kitchen

Whether you're putting up pears or peaches, tomatoes or string beans, it's a pleasure when you use a Puritan Cookstove.

The kitchen's always cool and clean and comfortable—your fire is always dependable—no coal, wood or ashes to bother with—and meals always on time.

The Puritan burner permits the steady intense flame to play directly on the utensil—the flame comes up thru the grate like a gas flame, with no waste of heat.

Instantly regulated for every cooking need the flame stays where you set it, low, medium or high. At full heat, the automatic wick-stop prevents smoking. The brass burners insure years of service. Sold by all good dealers.
