Tired Nervous Mothers

Should Profit by the Experience of These Two Women

Buffalo, N. Y.—"I am the mother of four children, and for nearly three years I suffered from a female trouble with pains in my back and side, and a general weakness. I had professional attendance most of that time but did not seem to get well. As a last resort I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which I had seen advertised in the newspapers, and in two weeks noticed a marked improvement. I continued its use and am now free from pain and able to do all my housework."—Mrs. B. B. Zielinska, 202 Weiss Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

Portland, Ind.—"I had a displacement and suffered so badly from it at times I could not be on my feet at all. I was all run down and so weak I could not do my housework, was nervous and could not lie down at night. I took treatments from a physician but they did not help me. My Aunt recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I tried it and now I am strong and well again and do my own work and I give Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound the credit."—Mrs. Josephine Kimble, 935 West Race Street, Portland, Ind.

Great Sums to Be Spent in Local Projects Under Centenary Program of Nation Wide Social Betterments

Dr. Morris E. Swartz, Executive Secretary Of The Centenary, Heralds Movement As Beginning Of New Era.

Communities, Both Large And Small, To Share In The Huge Scheme Of Improvements Planned.

"United States Has Become An International Power," Dr. Swartz Declared.

DR. MORRIS E. SWARTZ

Enormous sums of money are to be expended under the Centenary survey of the Methodist Episcopal Church to carry forth its social, educational and rebuilding program. The extent to which this program will benefit every community was disclosed today in an announcement by Dr. Morris E. Swartz, Executive Secretary of the Centenary, showing in detail the purposes for which a great humanity and relief fund is to be expended.

The schedule of improvements to be made in the Washington area, embracing Pennsylvania, Maryland, Delaware, District of Columbia, Virginia and West Virginia, covers a multitude of betterments of all kinds. The amounts to be spent over this territory vary, according to the size and needs of cities and towns Dr. Swartz announced. In some of the larger cities the program means the expenditure of hundreds of thousands of dollars. The Centenary survey covers the entire country and is the most complete ever made in the history of the church.

"American fighting lads in France finished the job of making the world safe for democracy," Dr. Swartz said. "Now it is the job of the Church to make democracy safe for the world. The world's call upon Methodism will not go unheeded. In that prediction I feel absolutely secure.

"Through the Centenary movement, Methodism begins an era of unprecedented service for humanity. The Centenary, marks the hundredth milestone in Methodist missionary endeavor, and the Centenary campaign now on is a movement for marshaling the forces of organized Christianity to insure the continuance of the fruits of victory.

Explaining the Centenary budget for world-wide projects, Dr. Swartz said:

"Some idea of the world-wide scope of the Centenary's benevolences may be gained by the fact that $105,000,000 is to be spent to make the world a better place to live in, through hundreds of educational and rebuilding projects and other humanitarian endeavors both at home and abroad." Public an outline of the Centenary budget, deemed essential to carry forward projects at home and abroad and for war reconstruction.

"Out of the total fund," Dr. Swartz said, $40,000,000 is to be used for the home field, and $40,000,000 for the foreign field. To meet the needs of emergency war reconstruction both in the United States and abroad, $25,000,000 has been allotted. Of this great sum, hundreds of thousands of dollars is to be expended in scores of cities and towns throughout the Washington area.

"Reconstruction work in the United States is divided up between 4,700 items of equipment, and 4,800 items of maintenance. Besides these projects the program contemplates the addition of the following to the present personnel of the Methodist Church in this country: 3,564 pastors in mission territories; 250 language pastors; 1,239 other workers, social and clinical, deaconesses, evangelists and directors; 2,506 new church buildings; 1 036 churches to be remodeled; and the construction of 1,188 parsonages and 43 special structures including hospitals and various types of educational institutions. Betterments upon an equally large scale are to be made for the foreign field. For example, ruined churches, will be rebuilt in France, Serbia, Belgium and other lands, starving children will be cared for, orphanages built for thousands left destitute, and community building constructed for other thousands sorely in need of food or raiment."

"The United States has entered upon a new phase of its history. It has become an international power.

"It is now obvious that the United States lives in a neighborhood of nations, many of whom are almost non-Christian, and more of whom have never yet accepted the Christian valuation of human life and liberty.

"The world cannot always exist half slave and half free. Either the backward nations must be lifted to our level or we shall be dragged down to theirs.

"To insure the continuance of American leadership among the nations and races of the earth, the Centenary World Program of the Methodist Episcopal Church makes the following proposals:

"The extension of the humanitarian ideal to the backward races by largely increasing the number of medical missionaries to teach the principles of the conservation of human life.

"The increase of educational agencies among the ignorant or depressed races as an initial step for the elimination of illiteracy throughout the world.

"The extension of a system of free Protestant churches, entirely separated from State control, to every land where such a church is unknown, with a view to giving to the races now struggling for self-determination the institution which has been the cradle of democracy in the United States and the safeguard of republican institutions.

"The world-wide preaching of the Gospel of Jesus Christ in simplicity and power.

"The Methodist Episcopal Church offers this program as a gift to our national life in commemoration of the Centenary of the establishment of its organized missionary work.

"The task of the Church in Europe is to do all in its power toward rebuilding homes and towns and cities. A great deal must be done in the way of pure relief. Evangelistic and social service centers must be established with the sole aim of planting a simple, democratic, dynamic Gospel in the midst of European civilization. A certain type of education has menaced and nearly destroyed Europe. Co-operating with other evangelical forces we must help in a large way to establish another type of education which will destroy war and rebuild the moral and spiritual life of the nations.

"The task of the Church in the United States is to furnish community centers in country districts, and in the midst of industrial populations; to furnish scholarships by which Methodist-young men and women may be trained for leadership; to provide new church buildings and community centers; to take up its responsibility in the work of Americanization; to continue war emergency work at the camps and ports of debarkation; to care for the orphans caused by war and influenza; and to meet other conditions suddenly created by war-time changes."
