A Flattering Tribute

TWO men, living in Baltimore, after having priced Clothing in every representative clothing house in Baltimore, finding the price so high in the city, made the trip to Chestertown and bought of Bordley & Son nearly $300.00 worth of Suits, Overcoats and Furnishing Goods, declaring they had saved $50 00 on their purchases. No greater proof is needed that our prices for the same grade of clothing is far less than can be found in the city. For further proof come in and convince yourself of the truth of this statement. Respectfully,

BORDLEY & SON.
