

Rockville, Maryland,
Dec. 8, 1931.

Governor Albert C. Ritchie,
Annapolis,
Maryland.

Dear Sir:

I am instructed by the Ashton Monthly Meeting of Friends (Quakers) held at Ashton, Maryland, December 6th, 1931, to write to you to express our appreciation of the prompt attention which you are giving to the recent outburst of mob violence in Salisbury, Maryland.

We deeply regret the occurrence. Our sympathies go out to those citizens of Wicomico County who had nothing to do with the action
