A PUBLIC UTILITY MUST CARRY ON

MANY INDUSTRIES, if confronted with a condition similar to that encountered by this Company in Maryland—revenue insufficient to meet expenses and interest charges—would shut up shop until more favorable times returned.

BUT WE CANNOT DO THIS. The Bell System has undertaken an obligation to provide a nation-wide, a universal service. As a part of this undertaking, this Company has accepted an obligation to serve the State of Maryland.

WE HAVE OBLIGATED OURSELVES to serve the villages as well as the cities; to link every community with every other community; to bring the isolated rural home in touch with the activities of the cities and towns. How well we have succeeded is shown by the 122,000 telephones which comprise the Bell System in Maryland.

EVERY COMMUNITY MAY NOT contribute its full share of the necessary revenues. But to fail to serve the small villages and rural communities would deprive them of communication with the outside world. And it would deprive those in the towns of the privilege of communicating with the smaller communities.

IN AN EFFORT SUCH AS THIS, affecting the comfort, the safety and convenience of the entire people, we cannot neglect our obligation.

WE ARE ANXIOUS not to neglect it—and all we ask is that the public support our application for increased rates, so that we may be able to pay expenses and earn a fair return.

WORTH WHILE

If you want to feel you're doing something really worth your while,
Just help a man in trouble and then watch him start to smile;
Take his burden on your shoulders and relieve his weight of care,
And stick until you've helped him from the valley of despair;
Then when he turns to thank you with a gratitude that's real,
You'll be surprised that minute just how good it makes you feel.

There's no such satisfaction as the satisfaction true
Which comes from helping others in the work they have to do,
And there's no such thrill of gladness like that sweet and happy thrill
Which is born of helping others who are trudging up the hill;
If you want to know contentment and be truly satisfied,
Just go out and help your brother when his soul is being tried.

You can boast your selfish pleasures and may glory in your fame,
You may think that there is gladness in the many joys you claim,
But you're never really certain that you're doing things worth while
Till you've smoothed another's pathway and you know it by his smile;
When you've done some deed of kindness under friendship's bond and seal,
It's surprising at that minute just how good it makes you feel.

LOCAL NOTES

The following have been elected officers of the Adelphia Literary Society of Washington College: President, W. D. Straughn; Vice-President, H. D. Norris; Secretary, Frank Ayres; Treasurer, Samuel Jenness. The Y. M. C. A. elected officers as follows: President, R. F. Ballard; Vice President, H. C. Wickard; Secretary, Frank Ayres, Jr.; Treasurer, Everett Nuttle.

The season for shooting geese and ducks closed Saturday. The fine for the violation of this law is as high as $500 and a six months' jail sentence. During the past week large quantities of wild ducks have been feeding in the fields of this and the upper part of Queen Anne's county.

Dr. G. Allan Jarman is now occupying the house he recently purchased from Dr. Charles R. Twilley. Dr. Jarman has made quite a lot of changes in the house and has remodeled the entire interior, the down stairs being thrown into practically one large apartment with open arches and dutch doors, and hard-wood floors. Frank E. Duyer did the carpenter work while Leonard C. Needles did the wall decorations in a neat manner.

Crumpton has a live literary society. Last Saturday the following program was rendered: Musical selection, Mrs. Herbert Bowers; reading, Mary Fennimore Sheppard; journal, Blanche Stack; address, Dr. Stack; solo, Roy Godwin; reading, Mrs. Spencer Merrick; comedian act and song, Mrs. Elwood Coleman; quartet, Willie Godwin, Edgar Rodgers, Wilbur Brinsfield, Avery Story. Committees appointed for February 14th: Literature, Mrs. Spencer Merrick, Mrs. John Harrison, Fred Stevens; Music, Mrs. Elwood Coleman, Mrs. Herbert Bowers, Mrs. P. Hemmonds; Journal, Mary Fennimore Sheppard.

A fox crossed Chester river Saturday, with nine fox hounds in full cry behind him, and made for "Bushfoot." After a few hours run the fox is said to have returned to Queen Anne's county again. The hounds crossing the river on the treacherous ice was a rare sight.

Robt. N. Boston, living about three miles from Chestertown, has a variety of corn which he calls "bird proof." the corn grows with a long shank and as the grain begins to form the ear bends over, causing the ear to grow downward, instead of upward, thus making it impossible for birds to pick the grain. He is finding ready sale for this corn at $3 per bushel.

Going Out Of Business

ENTIRE STOCK to be sold immediately. This announcement will explain for itself. Manufacturers of Clothing and other Merchandise are asking up to a forty per cent. increase for next fall delivery, which we think is unreasonable. We have decided to SELL OUT AND QUIT.

All Former Low Prices Smashed

In many instances half price will be the main feature. Thousands upon thousands of dollars worth of fine Clothing, Hats, Shoes, Sweaters, Underwear, for Men, Women and Children; Dry Goods and Silks, Silk and Serge Dresses, Girl's School Dresses, Boys' School and Dress Suits, Overalls and Work Shirts for Man and Youth—in fact, everything the two big stores contain—WILL BE SOLD OUT without regard to former price, present price, or the coming advance price.

The Big Sale Is Now In Full Force

and will continue until every stitch of Clothing will be sold. This sale should be of great importance to our friends and patrons, having always carried a first-class line of the above mentioned articles.

No need to tell you how the price of all goods are going up daily. Your own experience in buying for the last two years ought to lead you to this big sale—and buy not only one suit but two and three suits—not a pair shoes but three to five pair shoes—and buy enough to last you at least a few years.

WE ARE GOING TO DO EXACTLY WHAT THIS ADV. READS.
