ADDRESS BEFORE FARMERS' CLUB

The folliwing address was delivered by Arthur L. Harris at the last meeting of the Still Pond Farmers' Club:

The Still Pond Farmers' Club was organized March 6, 1886, With James S. Harris president and W. D. Pennington, secretary. The town hall was rented at $50 per year from G. W. Harper for meetings every Saturday at 2.30 o'clock and three additional days for the purpose of holding a fair. On Aug. 29, 1889, it was reorganized at the home of James S. Harris and W. D. Pennington elected president. On motion of Mr. Barnard the wives and children were admitted as members on equal terms and it was decided to hold meetings at the home of the members the last Thursday of each month. Mr. E. B. Pennington urged the farmers to encourage the canning industry by growing canning crops which he said were more profitable than grain and the freight on fruit shipped to the city often amounted to more than the farmers' profits.

On Feb. 6th, 1890, a move was endorsed by the club to establish high schools at suitable places throughout the county so as to be in reach of all farmers' children. It was their opinion that if they could be established it could be no longer said that "those who engage in trades got meat and wine, while those who engaged in farming got cabbage and salt."

During the same year fertilizer at existing prices was considered unprofitable for grain. A fertilizer man was present and said he could add more sand and thus make it cheaper. Mr. Jas. S. Harris expressed the opinion that pears could be grown in Kent at a profit. In the minutes of April 30, 1891, we find the following: "Mrs. E. B. Pennington, in an address full of sensible points and gentle sarcasm, demonstrated that the wives were fully able to do their part in all business affairs." On May 25, 1905, President Sylvester, of M. A. C., addressed the meeting. On Feb. 24, 1910, woman's suffrage was defeated by a vote of 10 to 27. The club originally held all its meetings in Still Pond, but it has been many years since it met there. The meetings are now held in the neighborhood of Kennedyville, Lynch, Worton, Fairlee and Betterton. The town [illegible] was not in existence during the early days of the Still Pond Farmers' Club, but has now grown to have a white population of more than double that of Still Pond and has about four times as many children, which makes its future look very bright.

It is always a pleasure for me to welcome the Farmers' Club and I hope we will have a pleasant and profitable meeting.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear mother, ANNIE E. LEE, of Millington, who departed this life February 28, 1920, aged 75 years.

Day by day we saw her fade,
And slowly sink away;
Yet in our hearts we often prayed
That she might longer stay.

Aprecious one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is stilled;
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled,

Nobly at her post she stood,
Our mother, kind and true;
Beloved by all her friends so well,
And kind to all she knew.

Tears within her children's eyes,
The children's breaking heart,
Can only tell the agony,
How hard it is to part.

Farewell, dear mother, thou art at rest,
And shall forever be;
You could not stay on earth with us,
But we can come to thee.

BY HER CHILDREN.

In the hush of early evening
Just before the dawn of night
When the winter winds were sighing,
Grandmother dear, she passed away,
Passed away from earth to Heaven,
Where the angels sweetly sing
Hallelujah, Hallelujah,
One more soul is safe at Home,
Sadly, oh, so sadly missed.

BY HER GRAND CHILDREN.
