"One Nation . . . Indivisible"

America's number one veteran and Leginnaire, Presidene Eisenhower, has issued a formal proclamation calling upon "all our citizens to observe Thursday, November 11th, 1954 as Veteran's Day. On that day," its says, "let us solemnly remember the sacrifices of all those who fought so valiantly, on the seas, in the air, and on foreign shores, to preserve our heritage of freedom, and let us reconsecrate ourselves to the task of promoting an enduring peace so that their efforts shall not have been in vain."

The President's proclamation cites our custom of memorializing November 11 as the anniversary of the armistice ending World War I and suggests the greater appropriateness of the name, Veterans' Day (as approved by Congress last June 1st) since "in the intervening years the United States has been involved in two other great military conflicts, which have added millions of veterans, living and dead, to the honor rolls of this Nation. . ."

In directing Government officials to see that the flag is displayed on all public buildings on this day, the President is at least hinting as what the rest of us should do on this occasion when "all veterans, all veterans organizations and the entire citizenry will wish to join hands in the common purpose". We'd better get up those colors we had cleaned free last June for Flag Day!

Across the land, in cities, towns and villages, observance arrangements, parades and other programs will be in the hands of joint committees representing The American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Amvets, and Disabled American Veterans. And coincidentally, at 15 metropolitan centers from the Dodgers' baseball park in Brooklyn, N.Y. to the Rose Bowl in Hollywood, the Legion will officiate, at the request of Attorney General Brownell, in ceremonies followingthe induction of nearly 25,000 newAmericans into the full rights and privileges of citizenship.

It is appropriate that all Americans, the newest as well as the oldest, participate in Veteran's Day. For one thing, thousands of our new citizens are veterans who fought under the American flag in two World Wars and in Korea—even though this country had no claim on them. And for another, the sons of those who are naturalized on this first Veterans' Day may well be marching themselves on Veteran's Days to come .
