Christmas and New Year Greetings to the Members and Friends of the Southern Baptist Church

I, the Rev. J. R. Grant, your minister, wish to thank the members and friends for their splendid co-operation with the Church Program. We have now put a new roof on our church at the cost of one thousand and thirty-nine dollars. We have also had an air-conditioning system installed at the cost of five thousand and thirty-nine dollars, and are now looking forward to the remodeling of our church.

Through humble prayers, we are asking for your co-operation in the future as it has been in the past.

May the blessings of the Lord go with you through the year.
