The Great Air Robbery

Thrilling scenes in fast moving biplanes 5,000 feet above the earth, with Lieutenant O. L. Locklear performing his spectacular feat of changing from one moving plane to another in mid-air; a story of wonderful romance and strange adventure; special aeroplane settings that give one a glimpse of what may be reality a few years hence; marvelous night scenes showing squadrons of U. S. Mail service aeroplanes leaving their hangars at midnight, illuminated by search-

"FRANCELIA BILLINGTON IN THE GREAT AIR ROBBERY" UNIVERSAL-JEWEL DE LUXE PRODUCTION

lights, and other unusual scenes are promised in "The Great Air Robbery", the much heralded Universal de luxe feature which will be at the Lyceum Theatre on Friday and Saturday, June 18 and 19.

"The Great Air Robbery" marks a new epoch in photoplay achievement. The star of the production is the only man accomplishing the hair-raising feat of changing planes a mile above the ground. Surrounding the exploits of this intrepid aviator is a story written and directed by Jacques Jaccard which carries a thrill in every hundred feet of film, and enacted by a company of screen favorites, such as Francelia Billington, Allan Forrest, Ray Ripley, Carmen Phillius and others.

Three months were spent in making this feature, and fully a half hundred speedy biplanes were utilized in the production. A squad of daring cameramen mounted on speedy air-cruisers, and directed by wireless from the Universal aviation field, were employed in making the scenes above the clouds. All pre-release reports indicate that the money and ingenuity expended on the production were well merited.

It is hard to get workmen for such work now.

SENSIBLE SIX

The Retailer's Invitation

This is my home, here where you come to buy
My business home, you are my guest, and I
Your cordial host. Let not alone the erade
Possess your thoughts. In you I hope I've made
A lasting friend; and that if you recall
This little visit and our deal at all,
It may be only as the means we found
To meet and mingle on a common ground.

This is my house, thrown open to my guests,
While I with joy comply with their requests.
Daily I hold reception, eight to six,
Striving to please the ones with whom I mix,
Hoping to fill each several, varying need
With courtesy devoid of sordid greed.
The thought of "getting" I would put away
And concentrate on "giving" all the day.

This is the house my business built for you
To visit; and if my house can do
A service for my valued list of friends
It will have served my fondly-wished-for ends.
Forget that you are "patron" or that I
Am called a "dealer," as the days go by
Let neighborly relationship prevail,
And this, my home and yours, can never fail.
