MARYLAND'S WAR EFFORT COMES FIRST

Keep A Good Man On The Job!

Re-Elect
Gov. Herbert R. O'Conor

Under A Democratic Administration

- Maryland was prepared for the war, 16 months before Pearl Harbor.
- Maryland has a balanced budget, with $9,000,000 in the Treasury.
- Maryland is back on an efficient business basis.
- Maryland no longer diverts gasoline tax funds from road-building.
- Maryland has decreased its real estate tax and income tax; has money in the treasury for a broad program of post-war construction to take up the slack of unemployment when peace comes.
- Maryland has a constructive, forward-looking conservation program, applying to the seafood industry, forestry, parks, and sport, hunting and fishing. There is NO leasing of public oyster beds to private industry.
