MEDICAL SCHOLARSHIPS

The Regents of the University of Maryland have determined to administer the fund bequeathed to the University of Maryland by the will of Doctor Warfield by establishing scholarships to aid students in the study of medicine. The conditions under which these scholarships shall be awarded can be obtained by writing Dr. J. M. H. Rowland, dean, University of Maryland, Baltimore, Md.

Applications for these scholarships should be in the hands of the Dean not later than July first. Each application should be accompanied by Certificate of Pre-medical Education from the College or Colleges attended by applicant and at least three letters of recommendation from persons well acquainted with the applicant. These recommendations should show clearly the character and financial needs of the applicant.

This is an excellent opportunity for any Kent county boy who wants to study medicine.

Whose Face is on your Twenty Dollar Bills?

We always get along pretty well with the man who looks at his money pretty closely.

He is out to introduce the gentleman on his twenty dollar bills to best advantage.

And we are always interested in increasing our volume to the extent that we give the man with the bill and the man on the bill, Full Face Value.

A FACT:-

The closer you study clothing prices this Spring ——the better you know values in general——and the Value of General Grant——the surer we are of hearing you say, "Gentlemen, I want you to meet my old friend 'Bill'."

CALLED

GREAT OAK MANOR

and known as "The Gamble Farm," and also "The Deputy Farm," situated in the Sixth Election District of Kent County, aforesaid, on the public road leading through the village of Melitota to the Chesapeake Bay and adjoining the lands of Rufus F. Parks, et al, an dcontaining

276 Acres of Land

MORE OR LESS.

This land, all of which is desirable, is very productive, in a high state of cultivation and is especially adapted to the growth of corn, wheat, tomatoes, fruits and hay. Nearly all of the land is tillable and there is also some good timber land and posts on the farm.

The improvements consist of a large, commodious and comfortable TWO AND ONE-HALF STORY FRAME DWELLING in good repair; Horse Stable, Modern Cow Stable, Granary, Carriage House, Meat House, Sheds and all other necessary outbuildings, all of which are in good condition. There is also a tenant house on the farm near the dwelling.

This property is beautifully situated on the Chesapeake Bay at the mouth of Fairlee Creek and an excellent view is afforded from the dwelling. It is a delightfully cool home in summer, conveniently located as to schools, churches, steamboat landings and railroads and the produce from the farm can be delivered for market from its shores. There are excellent fishing grounds for shad, rock, herring, perch and other fish lying off the shores of this farm and a good revenue is annually derived from this source. An excellent opportunity is now offered for profitable investment or to one seeking a delightful home.

TERMS OF SALE:

The terms of sale are one-third of purchase money cash on day of sale and the balance in two equal installments, payable in six and twelve months from day of sale or all cash at the option of the purchaser. Deferred payments to bear interest from day of sale and to be secured to the satisfaction of the undersigned. All title papers including cost of Revenue Stamps to be at the cost of the purchaser who will be required to pay the State and County Taxes to be levied for the year 1924. Possession of the property will be given on the day of sale.
