When they're sick even the toughest old bachelors like to have a woman looking after them.

Unfortunately, those who have the power to make us happiest can also make us the most miserable.

PENNSYLVANIA MAN BUYS 779 ACRES OF LAND

Plans for the establishment of a modern musgrat breeding and propagation farm, near Centreville, were launched last week by J. Clifton Green, of Hendall Hall, Pa., a brother of Mrs. Helena S. Rascob, owner of Pioneer Point Farm.

Mr. Green has completed the purchase of a total of 779 acres near Centreville, over 500 acres of which are fine, fully developed muskrat marshes, annually yielding several thousand black muskrat pelts.

Properties purchased include the following:

Farm of Joseph Brown, consisting of 394½ acres, for $26,000.

Portion of the farm of Roger Jester, consisting of 150 acres, for $6,000.

Twenty-five acres of marsh land from the farm of Philemon Thompson, for $1,000.

Farm of Mrs. Medford Walls, consisting of 170 acres, for $7,000.

Forty acres of marshland adjoining Island Creek from Spencer Merrick, of Crumpton, for $1,800.

Mr. Green is to become a citizen of Queen Anne's County probably within the next six weeks or two months. He has plans for developing an extensive muskrat breeding plant and the property acquired is regarded by propagation experts as being one of the finest sections in the East.

The new owner will reside on the Brown farm, where it is reported an attractive new home will be erected some time during the year.

I find it easier to write precepts than to follow them.

If a man can make one woman he's done something.

It's just as important to know your way out as to know your way in.

A pipe-smoker never held up a train.
