TABLE No. 21.

ROLL OF HONOR.

Officer Wilson W. Brown, North-Western District, for bravery in the arrest of Alexander Greer, and Frank Kearney, on July 1, 1888. Officer Brown was badly beaten by these men, and Kearney escaped, but he pluckily held on to Greer and delivered him at the Station House.

Marshal Jacob Frey, for the efficient manner in which he has managed the force, and especially for the skill and detective ability shown in the capture and arrest, at the request of the Governor of the State, of the pungy captains engaged in the attack upon the State Oyster Police Steamers. Also for the capture of William C. Howard, alias "Hungry Joe," convicted for "buncoing" William G. Bansemer out of $5,000. Also in the case of William Spurgeon, arrested in Missouri, charged with embezzlement from Hurst, Purnell & Co.

Officer J. H. Kratz, of the Eastern District, for the arrest, on the 9th of January, 1889, of Kunigunda Betz, charged with the murder of Mrs. Schneider, assisted by officer Henry Krause, Eastern District.

Officer G. H. Gordon, of the Eastern Distriet, for the zeal and skill displayed in locating the whereabouts of Kunigunda Betz, the alleged murderess, which resulted in her arrest within a short time thereafter.

Sergeant Bernard Ward, of the Central District, for signal bravery in arresting, promptly after the murder, on February 5, 1889, Oscar L. Willy, charged with the murder of Frank Valentine, by cutting him with a knife. This arrest was made while the accused was still brandishing the knife with which the murder was committed, and reflects much credit on the officer.

The Board further desire to command the Deputy Marshal for the efficient management, in his sphere of the Department, and especially for the way in which he has organized and disciplined the mounted officers of the Department.

They further desire to especially commend the officers mentioned in the following cases:

Digitized by Google