BABE OF BETHLEHEM

ON CHRISTMAS the whole Christian world prostrates itself in adoration around the crib of Bethlehem and rehearses in accents of love a history which precedes all time and will endure throughout eternity. As if by an instinct of our higher, spiritual nature, there well up from the depth of our hearts emotions which challenge the power of human expression. We seem to be lifted out of the sphere of natural endeavor to put on a new life and to stretch forward in desire to a blessedness which, though not palpable, is eminently real.—Cardinal Gibbons.

STEAMBOAT'N' DAYS

BY

JOHN H. K. SHANNAHAN

THIS new book, just published, tells the fascinating story of the coming of the steamboat to the Chesapeake!

It tells about Tidewater Maryland in the late '80's, when buggy rides still had their thrill and a trip to Balt'more on the B. S. Ford was an event of tremendous importance; when the glories of the Maltby House or the Carrollton met the wondering eyes of the lad from the counties.

[You'll be taken back to those days—the "good old days" of traveling minstrels, patent medicine men, the mustache cup and the family album, by reading Mr. Shannahan's book.]

"Steamboat'n' Days" is illustrated with many photographs, pictures of early "Steamboat'n' pioneers, reproductions of early advertisements and tickets of the first lines. Frontispiece, a reproduction in colors of a typical Chesapeake steamboat.

A novelette has also been made part of the volume. It is "The Hammond Lot," an Eastern Shore romance, of a little later period but laid among similar scenes.
