HERE IS A TAX THAT CAN BE REDUCED

In 1930 the American people, through payment of insurance premiums, were taxed to meet losses caused by fire amounting to $499,700,000. That is the highest total since 1926. In spite of much educational effort to teach caution; in spite of the great improvement in building materials and the increasingly rigid regulation of construction; in spite of better equipment for fighting fires, carelessness and crime continue to take an enormous toll through this form of destruction.

That crime plays an important part in fire losses may be judged from the fact that there were more than 1,300 arrests for arson in 1930, an increase over the preceding year of 70 per cent. Incendiary fires are more frequent in bad times than in good times, and the depression, no doubt, accounts for a large share of the alarming increase. The total convictions approximated only 400, or less than one-third of the number of persons arrested. A greater conservatism in the underwriting of risks and a stronger emphasis on the character qualification of the insured seem to be suggested as desirable. Meanwhile the agencies of the law may be exhorted justly in this, as in other fields, to sterner efforts in discouragement of criminals.

Still, for the most part, the reduction of the tax on property owners resulting from fire losses lies in the hands of the American people. By developing a sense of responsibility and by training themselves to be careful they can lessen appreciably the heavy tribute which fires levy upon the comtry's productive forces.

LOWER INDEMNITY FOR DISEASED CATTLE

Effective July 1 certain changes in conducting the work of bovine tuberculosis eradiction became necessary according to a report received from the Federal authoritites. This is important to Queen Anne's cattle breeders and reduces to some extent the indemnity for both grade and purebred cattle.

The maximum Federal indemnity has been set at $25 for grade animals and $50 for purebred animals. No cattle will be paid for on a purebred basis if they are not registered by the time they are two years old.

The State matches the Federal amounts for indemnity, making the maximum $50 for grades and $100 for purebreds. Then the other third is borne by the owner, making the maximum valuation $75 and $150.

This indemnity is split three ways. If an animal is valued at $75 the Federal Government pays $25, the State $25, and the owner bears the other $25. If the animal is salvaged it may be about $5. The Federal, the State and the owner each share alike in this expense, the full amount being deducted from the salvage.

All disinfectants, the report states, used in disinfecting the premises shall be those permitted by the United States Department of Animal Industry. No indemnity will be paid for cattle that have been added to herds under supervision unless such additions originate in herds under supervision.

No compensation will be paid for tuberculosis or partuberculosis cattle unless such cattle react to the tuberculin tests or reveal lesson of the disease upon autopsy. No payment will be made for cattle in herds if substantial evidence shows that the owner or agent has in any way been responsible for any attempt to unlawfully or improperly obtain indemnity funds for condemned cattle.

AS A MATTER OF NEWS

Those who endeavor to keep in touch with matters relating to the 18th Amendment will be interested in a recent article in the Christian Century calling attention to the fact that prohibition repeals bills in some form or other met defeat during the sessions of 1930-31 in the legislatcres of California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Iowa, Indiana, Missouri, New Jersey, Oklahoma, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Utah, and at the hands of the governor's veto in Illinois. There are some interesting names on that list—even the two states that refused to ratify the 18th Amendment are there. In New Jersey also, generally supposed the wet test state in the Union, all wet bills and resolutions died in the committee. Referenda for the repeal of state prohibition laws were defeated in the legislatures of California, Indianna, Missouri, Nebraska, New Jersey, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Washington. Resolutions asking for a constitutional convention to repeal the 18th Amendment were introduced and defeated in New Jersey, Ohio, South Dakota and Wisconsin. (Even Wisconsin). Bills legalizing beer, wine or other liquors were introduced and defeated in the legislatures of Alabama, Nebraska, Connecticut, Massachussetts, Rhode Island, South Dakota and Washington. On the other hand, a total of 42 states took action either to sustain or strengthen some aspects of their liquor laws.

IS BROOKLYN A SEPARATE CITY OR PART OF NEW YORK CITY.

Brooklyn, which is coterminous with Kings county, was formerly a separately chartered city of New York state, but in 1898 it was incorporated with New York City and since then has been a borough of Greater New York. In that year New York City not only annexed Kings, Richmond (Staten Island) and parts of Queens counties, but received a new charter for the enlarged city. The city now consists of five boroughs Manhattan, Bronx, Brooklyn, Queens and Richmond. It is governed by a mayor elected at large and a board of aldermen elected in districts. Each borough elects a borough president. Although Brooklyn is part of New York City it has an independent post office There are also Independent post offices at Jamaica, Flushing and Long Island City, all of which are in New York City. This does not mean that the post offices of Brooklyn, Jamaca, Flushing and Long Island City are branches of the main New York post office. They are entirely separate offices. "It is not deemed practical, for service reasons," says the Post Office Department, "to consolidate these large independent post offices under one general office."

All of our taxation problems can be summed up in the cry. "Tax the other fellow."

IN MEMORIUM

In sad but loving remembrance of my dear father and mother, George W. Davis, died seventeen years ago today, July 29, 1931. Rosa Davis died six years ago July 3. 1931.

Deep in my heart you are fondly remembered,
Sweet happy memories cling round your name,
True heart that loved you with deepest affection,
Always will love you in death just the same.

Studebaker Free Wheeling makes me want to go places and do things

MOTORING was almost becoming commonplace.

Some men were saying: "I don't care anything about automobiling; I buy a car for transportation!"

Then Studebaker gave us Free Wheeling and put the thrill back into motoring (and a 15% to 20% saving in oil and gas). Now adults get the same joy out of driving a car that children get out of tobogganing, skating or chuting the chutes.

Motoring is again an OUTDOOR SPORT.

Now that you can buy a Free Wheeling Studebaker for $845, it's perfectly sil to buy a car without it—aren't I right?

This $845 Studebaker, by the way, is the lowest priced Six with Free Wheeling as standard equipment—engineered from tip to tail to give you the fullest benefits of Free Wheeling in its finest form.

McCORMICK-DEERING
ENCLOSED GEAR
ENSILAGE CUTTER

The McCormick-Deering No. 12 Ensilage Cutter is another International Harvester achievement. It sets a new standard in ensilage-cutter design and construction. Here is an ensilage cutter that embodies improved features taken from automobile and tractor construction.

The foundation of the No. 12 ensilsage cutter is a one-piece main frame enclosing the flywheel, cutter, transmission and apron drive. All the working parts are enclosed in an oil-tight and dust-proof housing, permitting all parts to run in a bath of oil. This construction, combined with the use of specially cut and heat-treated gears, assures exceptionally long life and efficient operation.

Other features of McCormick-Deering construction are:

Knife-on-flywheel type with four knives secured to the flywheel of boiler plate steel.

Positive drive on feed apron with high and wide feed throat.

Working parts mounted on high grade, anti-friction bearings.

Length of cut can be changed without stopping machine.
