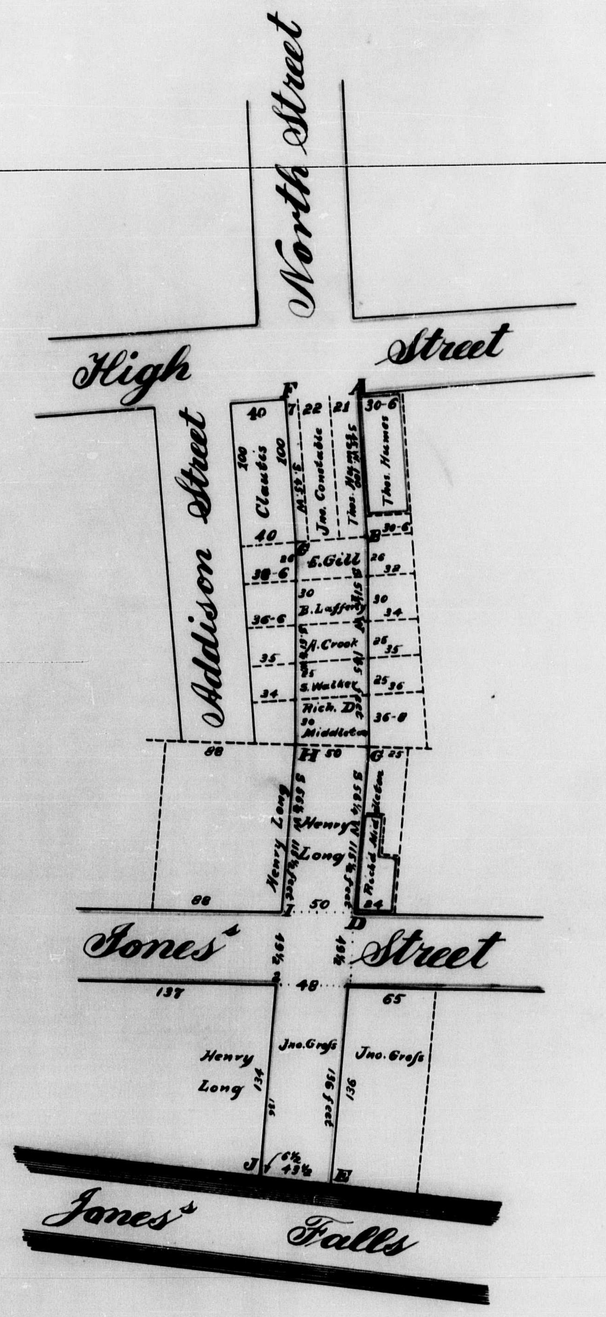
bca_brg12_bca218-0179 ©Maryland State Archives

I have at the instance of James Hindman Andrew Clopper John Frick William Winchester and Jacob Giles Commissioners appointed by the Mayor of the City of Baltimore in Conformity with the provisions of an Act of the General Assembly of Maryland passed the Second day of January 1818 entitled the Supplement to the act for opening and Extending North Street in the City of Baltimore carefully and Extended the lines of Said Street from High Street Southwestwardly to Jones's Falls as by the said Supplement directed that is to say Beginning for the South East side of said Street on the South west side of High Street at the North Corner of Thomas Humes brick House and running along the North west end Wall of Said House South forty Seven degrees West One hundred feet thence South fifty one and a half degrees West one Hundred and forty five feet until it intersects the outline of Jones's Town where a line drawn North East wardly from and parallel with the North West end Wall of Richard Middletons Brick Dwelling House situate on Jones's Falls will intersect the outline of Jones's Town thence along said line reversely South fifty Six and quarter degrees west one hundred and fifteen and a half feet to the West corner of Said House on Jones's Street thence Still Continuing the Same Course South fifty Six and a quarter degrees west to Jones's Falls And Commencing for the North west side or line of said Street so Continued on the South West side of High Street North Westwardly fifty feet from the North Corner of Thomas Humes Brick House and running South Westwardly parallel with the lines of the South East Side of Said Street and at the distance of fifty feet there from untill it intersects Jones's Falls as delineated on the annexed plat by the Letters A·B·C·D·E and the Letters F·G·H·I·J.

John Bouldin



TRUE COPY
Jas. W. Heisley
Chief Engr
Feb. 17, 1906 Topo. Survey