IT TAKES YOUR MONEY

—only 25 cents to buy a glass vial of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets — but then you get a lasting benefit and a permanent cure of your Bilious or Sick Headache, Constipation or Indigestion, loss of appetite, and all those troubles which follow a disordered liver.

The time to treat an inactive liver is before it becomes a disease. If these tiny Pellets were in every day use people would be germ-proof. The germs of disease make their entrance to the system through the liver—your health and well-being depends on the liver.

If you suffer from wind and pain in the stomach, giddiness, costiveness, disturbed sleep, you get immediate relief from the use of "Pleasant Pellets."

They're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or money returned.

A "COLD IN THE HEAD" is quickly cured by Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. So is Catarrhal Headache, and every trouble that is caused by Catarrh. So is Catarrh itself. The proprietors offer $500 in cash for any case which they cannot cure. Sold by all dealers in medicines.

Catarrh Is Common.

Few realize just how common it is. Very many people have Catarrh, or at least Catarrhal symptoms, who would laugh at the idea. It is an unpleasant disease—one of those which make others uncomfortable as well as the one who has it. The first symptoms are: A heavy feeling between the eyes, profuse and offensive mucous discharge from the nostrils, headache and foul breath.

Foster's German Army and Navy Cure is recommended for both slight and aggravated cases. It will cure the worst case of CATARRH, and is good for a mere Cold—an inflamed condition of the nasal passages is the cause of both. It is also good for HAY FEVER. It is a sure cure. There is nothing marvelous about it. It is not an accidental, magical discovery, but a perfectly sensible, scientific preparation, intended to do just exactly the thing it does, and nothing else.

It costs 50 cents—druggists.

FOSTER MEDICINE COMPANY.

☞FOSTER'S GERMAN ARMY AND NAVY SKIN CURE is the best thing for ECZEMA, TETTER, RING WORM, SALT RHEUM, ITCH, DANDRUFF, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES and ITCHING PILES. Designed to cure permanently, and does it. It's 50 cents, too.

And you will be convinced that we are the only dentists in this city who do the highest grade of work at moderate prices. You can get just as good work as ours, but you'll have to pay twice or three times as much as we charge. You can get cheaper work—and it is cheaper. It isn't good.

He Turned the Tide.

The fakir had opened up business on the public square of a southern town, and was going on to tell how his "red salve" would cure toothache, neuralgia, backache, rheumatism, sprains and most everything else under the sun, when a big and ugly looking colored man pressed his way into the crowd and said:

"I bought a box of dat stuff of you ober to Augusta, and it hain't wuth shucks!"

"What! What's that you're saying?" demanded the fakir as he stopped short in his appeal to a suffering public.

"Dat stuff ain't no better so'n much mud!" growled the colored man.

"Sir," exclaimed the fakir, "you have publicly accused me of being a swindler, and the case is one which must be thoroughly investigated. I warrant my red salve to cure certain ailments or the money will be refunded. What was your particular ailment?"

"Pain, sah!"

"Where was that pain?"

"Down betwixt my shoulders."

"And you used the salve according to the directions?"

"Yes, sah."

"And you've used it all up and the pain is still there?"

"De pain am still wus, I reckon."

"Then my red salve has skipped a cog, and I must refund your money. First, however, let me make an examination. Come up here till I run my hand down behind your collar and see where the pain is."

The colored man had on a woolen shirt, which was open at the throat, and he bent his head and let the fakir slide his hand down. The latter felt around for a minute and then withdrew his hand and held a bent and rusty tenpenny nail up to view and said:

"Ladies and gentlemen, is it any wonder my celebrated red salve couldn't take away the pain with this nail sticking in his back? One box of it pulled the nail over half way out, and yet he declares that I'm a liar and a robber. I think I felt at least three other nails, besides a pipe stem, a hairpin, a wishbone and a gimlet, and yet he has the face to come here and demand his money back! Does any one ever hear"—

"Whar dat nail cum from?" shouted the colored man as he danced around.

"Drawn out of your lungs by the use of one box of my world renowned red salve, sir."

"An mo' a-coming?"

"Heaps more, and yet you charge me with being a robber and murderer! I guarantee to refund the money in every case where a cure is not effected, and therefore I now tender—"

"No, sah—no, sah!" shouted the negro as he flung his arms about in great excitement. "I doan' dun wont my money back! I dun wants another box of dat stuff to bring out all de razors, jackknives, cotton choppers an' corn ploughs dat's got lodged in my system doorin' de last 20 y'ars, and if one box won't do it doan' you dun leave dis town till I'ze got fo' or five! Gimme dat salve, and you, boy Hiram, cum along an rub it on an lookout fur nails an splinters working out!"

A "Team."

What is a "team?" Is it an animal hitched to a wagon, or simply two animals which are harnessed up together? Does the word include the vehicle? An exiled Bostonian, writing from Nebraska to a Boston paper, confesses his humiliation when, upon remarking that a "team" had been left in the street, he was told by a cowboy that he meant a wagon. He admits that the cowboy was right, and so it seems here. In the State of New York, where a high state of language prevails, "team" properly includes the animals, if more than one, which haul a vehicle, but not the vehicle itself; but improperly it is used to designate any animal or animals hitched to any vehicle. It is not used however, to designate the vehicle without the animals, as seems sometimes to be the case in New England. A synonym for team in its degenerate sense in New York State is "rig." In the more objection able phases of newspaper English a horse and buggy are invariably a "rig," and livery-stablemen and farmers' boys employ the same comprehensive term to almost any vehicle drawn by anything on four legs.—Harper's Weekly.

Duration of Day and Night.

Everybody does not know that by a very simple rule the duration of night and day can be determined at any time of the year. All you have to do is to multiply the time of the sun's rising by two, and it will give you the length of the night. Multiply the time of setting by two and you get the length of the day. It is easily demonstrated at the time of the year when the sun rises and sets at 6 o'clock, and day and night are of equal duration. It is just as true as the days lengthen and shorten. Thus as winter approaches take a day when the sun rises at 7.30 and sets at 5.30. Apply the rule, and you have a night of 13 hours and a day of 11 hours. The rule will be found absolutely accurate at any season of the year.

"JILSON must have been making a lot of money this past year."

"Did he tell you?"

"No, but he's able to allow his family to spend the summer home."

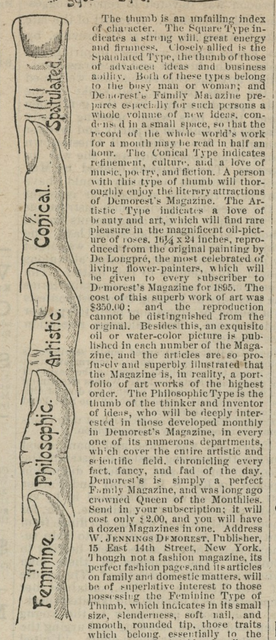
WHAT YOUR THUMB TELLS.



The thumb is an unfailing index of character. The Square Type indicates a strong will, great energy and firmness. Closely allied is the Spatulated Type, the thumb of those of advanced ideas and business ability. Both of these types belong to the busy man or woman; and Demorest's Family Magazine prepares especially for such persons a whole volume of new ideas, condensed in a small space, so that the record of the whole world's work for a month may be read in half an hour. The Conical Type indicates refinement, culture, and a love of music, poetry, and fiction. A person with this type of thumb will thoroughly enjoy the literary attractions of Demorest's Magazine. The Artistic Type indicates a love of beauty and art, which will find rare pleasure in the magnificent oil-picture of roses, 10½ x 24 inches, reproduced from the original painting by De Longpré, the most celebrated of living flower-painters, which will be given to every subscriber to Demorest's Magazine for 1895. The cost of this superb work of art was $350.00; and the reproduction cannot be distinguished from the original. Besides this, an exquisite oil or water-color picture is published in each number of the Magazine, and the articles are so profusely and superbly illustrated that the Magazine is, in reality, a portfolio of art works of the highest order. The Philosophic Type is the thumb of the thinker and inventor of ideas, who will be deeply interested in those developed monthly in Demorest's Magazine; in every one of its numerous departments, which cover the entire artistic and scientific field, chronicling every fact, fancy, and fad of the day. Demorest's is simply a perfect Family Magazine, and was long ago crowned Queen of the Monthlies. Send in your subscription; it will cost only $2.00, and you will have a dozen Magazines in one. Address W. JENNINGS DEMOREST, Publisher, 15 East 14th Street, New York. Though not a fashion magazine, its perfect fashion pages, and its articles on family and domestic matters, will be of superlative interest to those possessing the Feminine Type of Thumb, which indicates in its small size, slenderness, soft nail, and smooth, rounded tip, those traits which belong essentially to the gentler sex, every one of whom should subscribe to Demorest's Magazine. If you are unacquainted with its merits, send for a specimen copy (free), and you will admit that seeing these THUMBS has put you in the way of saving money by finding in one Magazine everything to satisfy the literary wants of the whole family.
