JEFFERSON.

THE LADIES STORE, CHESTERTOWN, MD.

Fairest of all the Autumn Opening!

THE "Ladies Store" is now all aglow with the very newest things (FOR FALL) and you'll find that generous assortments are features in all departments; jewels of "purest ray serene" at prices that mean baraing prices. In fact, taken all in all, the "Ladies Store" presents the "Fairest of all the Autumn Openings."

While all departments are brimming full of the season's best articles, lack of space prevents giving each special mention, and we direct your attention to the thing mostly needed at present, viz.: Dress Goods, Silks, Shoes and Millinery and suggest that you read carefully what we have to say on these lines then journey hither and inspect, and we feel assured that the goodness of these articles will be recognized with a glance.

STILL POND ITEMS.

Miss Evelyn Ford, of Galena, has been visiting Miss Jennie Bowers the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Walter and family spent New Year's in Brooklyn.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Watson, of Newark, Del., have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Rasin.

Miss Edith Caldwell and brothers, James and Herbert of Galena, and Miss Mamie Jefferson and Mr. Franklyn McCoy, of Chesapeake City, were guests of Miss Mabel Norris on Saturday.

Our pastor will preach a New Year's sermon next Sunday morning. The service in the evening will be in charge of the Epworth League as our pastor will begin his revival services at Betterton.

Mrs. Chas. Walters entertained her Sunday school class of twelve young ladies and their gentlemen friends on Friday evening of the holidays. All spent a pleasant evening and hope to meet again on such an occasion.

Misses Anna Smith and Lenora Davis, of Chestertown, have been visiting relatives and friends around our town.

Mr. and Mrs. James Benson, of Anne Arundel county, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Parrott.

Mrs. Sallie Norris and daughter, Laura, Mrs. John Robinson, Sr. and Miss Gertie Robinson spent part of the past week in Baltimore.

Mrs. Chas. Severson entertained her Sunday school class of young men and their young lady friends at her home on Wednesday evening. An enjoyable evening was spent by all, hoping to meet again another New Year's Day.

Bro. Collins attended the Christmas entertainment on Wednesday evening held by the Betterton Sunday school where he is in charge. Quite a large number were present.

The Insurance companies have settled with the trustees of our church and the work on our Sunday school room will soon begin, and we are told when completed we will have as fine up-to-date room as will be found anywhere.

Mrs. William Stanley has been quite sick the past few days. We hope for her speedy recovery. Mrs. James Birch, who has been quite sick is improving.

Our Annual Christmas entertainment was held last Thursday evening at our church. The children recited well and the entertainment was very much enjoyed by a large crowd.

KENNEDYVILLE ITEMS

We are on the move, but it is about over now. We had such good weather and kind neighbors we soon moved, but we are not fixed up very well yet, so come and spend the day and help us get settled in our new homes, all of whom can, but be sure to bring your dinner and go home before supper.

Mr. Phil Myers has been hearing a noise about his chicken house of late, and on Saturday night he put his gun in his room to have it when needed. On Sunday morning he took the gun down stairs and set it in the corner of the room and forgot to take out the loaded shells. Soon afterward one of the little boys got the gun and soon a report was heard. The load struck one of the boy's shoes but did not hurt his foot. Another one of the children had several shot strike the back of his head on a glance, so no wound was inflicted. The load blew a hole in the buffet, so we, as well as Mr. Myers, are very glad indeed the accident was no worse. So if Mr. Burglar comes around we are sure he will meet with a warm welcome from Mr. Myers' gun. He had better stay away.

On last Saturday night Mr. W. S. Hurlock harnessed up their old family driver to the carriage for his wife and daughters to come to Kennedyville and he walked on down. When the ladies came to get in the carriage, the horse must have had Christmas in his bones because he is always quiet. He started at once in a run, and threw Mrs. Hurlock and Miss Ada out and shook and bruised them up some, but nothing very serious. We are glad to state they are getting over it alright. Miss May did not get in the carriage, so she was more fortunate.

Mr. F. C. Miller harnessed up his pair of nervy horses one afternoon this week to take Mr. Julian Jones and sister, Mrs. Hayes, out to Jones' from the 3 o'clock train. When he had gone a short distance his reins broke and he pulled them into the fence to stop them. There, however, was no one hurt, and Mr. Miller will have to have better reins or he must have less nervy horses or he may not get off so fortunate the next time. CITIZEN.

BETTERTON BRIEFS.

The New Year's entertainment and treat held in the church on New Year's night proved quite a success. The church was prettily trimmed with cedar and holly, and the programme was well rendered by the children and the choir, as only a few nights of rehearsal was had to practice in. A large congregation was present and enjoyed the evening.

Owing to repairs of the canal, the Ericsson Line will discontinue its regular trips about the middle of the month.

Miss Florence Jewell, teacher of Worton school, spent New Year's with her mother on Ericsson avenue.

We are glad to state that Mr. John Leigh who has been quite sick for sometime is improving.

Mrs. Sallie West, the oldest inhabitant in this town, is very sick at her home.

Mrs. Howard Owens, who has been spending several weeks with her parents in Queen Annes, has returned home.

The young folks spent a very pleasant evening last Thursday at the Hotel Betterton. Games of all kinds were indulged in until a late hour when refreshments were served.

Revival services will begin on Sunday afternoon and continue through the week. The public is cordially invited to help to make the meetings a success. Rev. Collins in charge of the services.
