ROCK HALL ITEMS.

Will incorporating remove the mud from our street? If so, now is the time for its adoption, pedestrians are compelled to walk in mud ankle deep. It is amusing to listen to the language used by those who use the streets. Some say cuss-words, others say good things of the supervisor of roads, while others say nothing, but from the smile upon their faces you will observe that beneath the surface lies a volcano.

Owing to our atmosphere being free of dust-particles there is very little sickness in our midst. Capt. Sewell is able to be out, Miss Clara Downey is convalescent, all the school marms are at their posts, and no serious results were experienced by the one who took the bath. Miss Marguerite Hersch is substituting for Miss Crosswell, who is in Baltimore for treatment of her eyes.

One of those fogs, which our captains say is sufficiently dense to drive a handspike and make fast to, passed over our town Monday, delaying the boat and causing considerable damage to shipping.

After six weeks of rest the oysters were taken from their watery bed and the buyers had the audacity to offer twenty cents for them. Our oystermen are beginning to think that someone beside the buyers are responsible for these conditions. We suggest trusts, syndicates, or perhaps Lady Baltimore has boycotted them because they are an "Eastern Sho" product.

The R. H. S. Lyceum have challenged the citizens of Rock Hall to a joint debate on the question of woman suffrage. The citizens are expected to take the negative. All are invited to attend. Friday, 13th inst., at 2.30 P. M.

Mr. John Legg, hackman, met with a painful accident on Monday. He called at the residence of Mrs. George Coleman to take her to the boat. When he started to drive off, the kingbolt gave way and the front of the carriage was precipitated to the ground throwing Mr. Legg against the front axle and cutting a long deep gash on his forehead. With the blood streaming down his face he repaired the damage to the carriage, took Mrs. Coleman to the boat and then called upon a doctor to dress the wound, which required several stitches to be taken.

The I. O. O. F. held their anniversary on Tuesday evening, but owing to some misunderstanding but few were present, about eleven, who succeeded in making way with three gallons of ice cream.

Mrs. James Jones died at her home Sunday night. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Warren Burr on Tuesday 2 P. M. Interment at Wesley Chapel.

Miss Miriam Scarborough, of Baltimore, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. McCay, of Gratitude.

The Improvement Society of Wesley Chapel, met at the home of Mr. Wm. Burgess in Piney Neck, yesterday.

Mr. George Willson, of Baltimore, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Willson. George is one of our school boys, who made a contract with his father that for a year's work on the farm, he, (father), would give him a business course at a Balto. commercial school. The contract was carried out and George receives the course and is now making better wages than the average school teacher.

Mr. Fred Williams, as soon as the roads permit, will move to the Hopkins Burgess home on Swan Creek. Mr. Charles F. Wheatley, (butcher), will leave the Chesapeake House and occupy the residence of Mrs. Mamie Wilkins.

Miss Hilda Boyer, of Europe, Penn., is visiting Mrs. Barbine, of Gratitude.

The ladies of the M. E. Church will hold an entertainment at K. of P. Hall on Monday evening, March 9. This will be an enjoyable affair as some of the best talent of the town is engaged.

We are sorry to report Mr. Richard Jones as being very ill. He is one of our most useful citizens and we hope for his speedy recovery.

It is reported that Mr. T. B. Durding has purchased the Kembal farm at private sale, price unknown.

Mr. George Saunders is sick with the pneumonia. Dr. Schwatka is in daily attendance.

The Rock Hall orchestra serenaded the members of K. of P. at their hall on Saturday night last, and the boys rendered some of their best music.

Mr. George Davis, Sr., class leader of the M. E. Church, is quite sick at his home. Mr. Davis is one of our best citizens, regularly at his post and much of the progress of the church is due to his work.

Mr. Will Crosby, who has been housed all winter, is gradually venturing out.

A Delightful Party.

A delightful party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Moffett, of Swan Creek, on last Thursday evening, February 27, 1908. The guests arrived at about 7.30 o'clock. The usual passtimes for such occasions were joyously indulged in until about 10 o'clock when the happy assembly were ushered into the spacious dinning room where they beheld the table fairly groaning beneath the weight of up-to-date refreshments. Music was rendered by Mr. Albert Moffett. Among those present were: Misses Mary Groves, Blanche Sutton, Mapel Kurnan, Unity Sutton, Blanche Groves, Helen Sutton, Myrtle Durding, Essie Smith, Elma Sutton, Florence Dodson, Amye Gosman, Nannie Newcomb, Reva Smith, Merie Smith and Gladys Gibson; Messrs.
