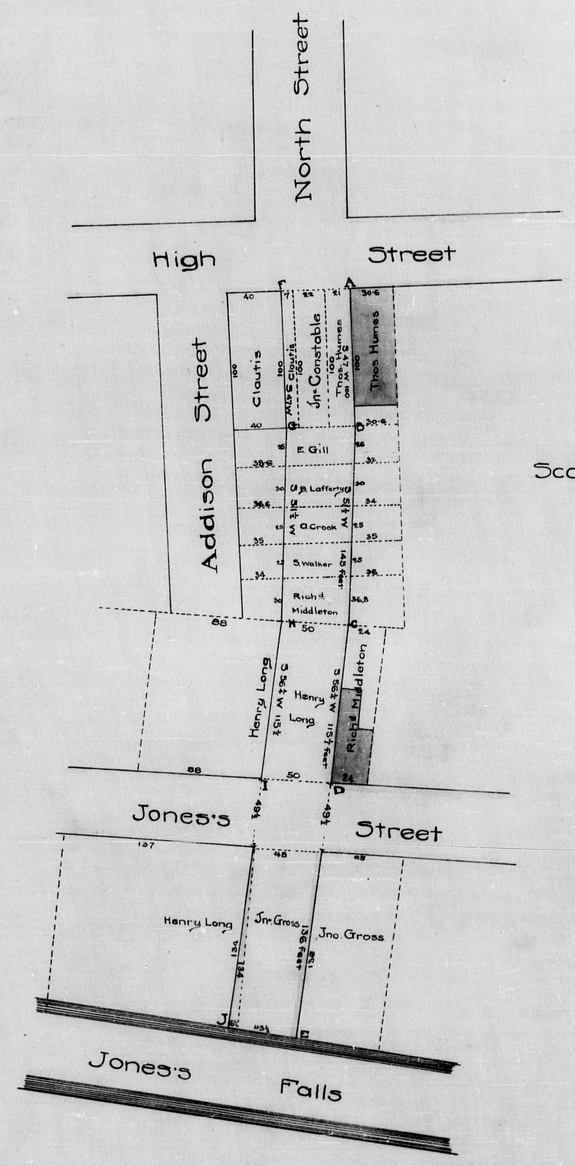
bca_brg12_bca220-0450 ©Maryland State Archives

No. 78.

I have at the instance of James Hindman, Andrew Klopper, John Brick, William Winchester, and Jacob Giles, Commissioners appointed by the Mayor of the City of Baltimore in conformity with the provisions of an Act of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed the second day of January, 1818, entitled a Supplement to the Act for opening and extending North Street in the City of Baltimore, carefully surveyed and extended the lines of said Street from High Street Southwestwardly to Jones's Falls, as by the said supplement directed, that is to say, Commencing for the South East side of said Street on the South west side of High Street at the North Corner of Thos. Humes brick House and running along the north west end wall of said House South forty seven degrees West one hundred feet, thence South fifty one and a half degrees West one hundred and forty five feet until it intersects the outline of Jones's Town, where a line drawn North Eastwardly from and parallel with the North West end wall of Richard Middletons Brick Dwelling House situate on Jones's Street, will intersect the outline of Jones's Town, thence along said line reversely South fifty six and a quarter degrees West one hundred and fifteen and a half feet to the west corner of said house on Jones Street, thence still continuing the same course, South fifty six and a quarter degrees West to Jones's Falls.

And Commencing for the North west side or line of said Street, so continued on the South West side of High Street, north westwardly fifty feet from the north corner of Thomas Humes Brick House and running ~~and running~~ South Westwardly parallel with the lines of the South East side of said Street and at the distance of fifty feet therefrom, until it intersects Jones's Falls, as delineated on the annexed plat by the Letters A.B.C.D.E and the Letters F.G.H.I.J.

June 11th. 1818. John Boulden



Scale of 60 feet in an Inch.

John Boulden

This was rec. from the Commissioners the 15 July, 1818 into my office to be filed and preserved among the City Records.

Jno. Hargrove, Regr.