

Wea.

FRI. JAN. 1, 1897

Ther.

B. 7 A fine day, mild With humble thanks to Almighty and all merciful God for the Mercies of The past year, we enter upon the New year humbly praying for forgiveness for all past errors and offences, and imploring His guidance and blessings during The current year, that we may influenced by His Holy Spirit and aided by His Grace in all our duties to Him and our fellow beings.
May He help us all to do all things according to His Will!

I rode to Colton for a basket of sundries, leaving her at The Rectory. Returning we lunched at The Rectory.
P. M. He rode to ~~Colton~~ for an hour call.