

Spring and I don't feel that you ought to put in the cold winter months out there just to keep some other person's house occupied. Have to pay another month's rent on Tuesday though, so guess we will stick it out there until after Xmas.
 Have about 2 tons of coal in the cellar and the chickens, which we would have to dispose of if we do anything now except take another house. I would like to keep the chickens, as we have become
 "very much attached" to them.
 If we do move in town and can't sell them for a good
