VICTORY FOR P. O. S. OF A.

A Victory Due to Heavy Batting.

Wheatleyized base ball had a triumphant entry into the local fandom Saturday with their new uniforms and a large crowd of the honest denizens of grandstand and beachers turned out to grow merry. They saw base ball of the old school in which the Still Ponders were overwhelmed to the tune of 26 to 11. Perhaps the tune is very large, but it should be remembered that "Warren" had brought from the "Neck" a proposition of bedraggled sons of the diamond who performed like hired men on a hot Saturday afternoon. From the P. O. S. of A. oozed ginger and evidence of high art that filled circumambient air and sent through the faithful thrills as pleasant as the notification of an increase of salary. Mr. Robert Bramble who had been spending the early spring in driving nails, had furtunately been assigned to shoot 'em over the plate, and he did it. High, low, jack and the game. He sent over sisslers, dropped them over teasingly, slobbered over them affectionately, and the long and short of it was the Still Ponders were up against it. To take advantage of every little thing in their favor was the motto, and if they keep up the pace they cannot be barred from winning. Barnes behind the bat cannot be beat, and his throwing to second was of the professional order. Rolph at third was there with the goods. W. Coleman, H. Coleman and Bartley handled themselves nicely. Gill, in right field, did not have much to do, but was there with the goods at the bat, making four hits. Bennett was "real" at the bat and so was Simpler, the latter having two three-base hits and one double to his credit. A very fast double play was pulled off in the sixth inning. A runner was on third, one out, the ball was hit to W. Coleman who threw to Bartley and Bartley threw to Barnes, nailing both runners and thereby completing one of the fastest double plays seen on Still Pond grounds for years. Manager Wheatley deserves especial credit for the way in which he handled the score card.

The boys think Rasin is one of the easiest propositions they have ever been up against. Manager Wheatley is desirous of hearing from teams in the county and also out of the county. Games can be arranged with J. Frank Wheatley, manager.

A Fine Concert.

The concert given by the Washington College Choral Society in William Smith Hall last Friday evening was indeed a rare musical treat. The singing by the chorus under the able direction of Mrs. James W. Cain was delightful, and every selection gave evidence of the skillfulness of the directress and the harmony and rythm of popular music. The rendering of "Hush Thee My Babie", and Inflammatus, by the chorus of forty well selected voices was charming, and the large audience was captivated by the local talent. The volin selections by Prof. Van Hulsteyn of the Peabody showed him to be a perfect master of the art of violin playing, and while the character of the selections rendered was classical, they were not beyond the appreciation of a cosmopolitan audience. Miss Mary Rogers' contralto solo was especially well received by the audience, as was also the "cute" soprano solo, "Bobolink," by Miss Mary Ahern. Both ladies have rich voices with full and powerful scope, and yet they are under perfect control. Miss Martinez, the soprano soloist from New York, has a rich and highly cultivated voice. Her tones are rich and clear and her range wide. Her selections were extremely classical, and much enjoyed by those who understood classical music and the languages. Altogether the concert was a great credit to the musical life of the college, and reflected much credit upon the rare ability of Mrs. Cain as a splendid directress. The proceeds of the entertainment were donated to the Athletic Association.
