ACT QUICKLY.

Delay Has Been Dangerous in Chestertown.

Do the right thing at the right time.
Act quickly in times of danger.
Backache is kidney danger.
Doan's Kidney Pills act quickly.
Cure all distressing, dangerous kidney ills.
Plenty of evidence to prove this.

Mrs. E. A. Riley, living on Stokes street Havre de Grace, Md., says: "I have the highest regard for Doan's Kidney Pills as they cured me of a severe case of kidney complaint and backache in 1903, from which I had suffered a long time and for which there seemed to be no cure. My trouble was across the small of my back and up between my shoulders a continuous, dull pain and an all gone weakness so severe at times as to interfere with my household duties. I used a number of remedies but none helped me until I procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and began taking them. They gave me relief immediately, and the benefit received was permanent being apparently as fresh today, April 23d, 1907 as the day it was made. It gives me pleasure to reiterate all I said in my former statement."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 Cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's —and take no other.

WHOLE GANG CAPTURED.

Desperadoes Who Robbed the Postoffice at Sassafras and Shot the Postmaster, Now Safely Behind the Bars.

The desperadoes who some weeks ago robbed the postoffice at Sassafras and shot the postmaster, were caught recently near Lancaster, Pa. They robbed a postoffice in that section and were rounded up, and after a battle, three of the four were arrested, and the other one who got away at the time was later apprehended in Philadelphia.

The appearance of the gang answered that of the one wanted for the Sassafras job, and photographs of them were sent not only to the postmaster at Sassafras, who had a brief but intimate acquaintance with them, but also to those persons in the lower part of Cecil who saw the men at different points, and all readily identified them. The man who escaped from Lancaster and was afterward caught in Philadelphia was recognized as the one who shot the Sassafras postmaster, and when arrested he had a 38 calibre revolver and $79 worth of stamps with him. He has not yet been tried, but the other three were given eleven years apiece for the Pennsylvania job, and detainers were filed to hold them when the sentence expires so that they may be tried for the Sassafras affair.

After the gang did their work at Sassafras they went across the First District of Cecil county towards Reybold's wharf; then for some reason they tramped boldly back, across Bohemia bridge, where they held up a man and got a small sum of money; then they went through Chesapeake City and across to the Delaware Railroad and up to Porters. At that point they divided their force, two of them going to Newark and the other two to Delaware City. Later they again joined and moved on up into Pennsylvania, where to the relief of the public they were caught.

Still Pond Items.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Kelley and family, of Baltimore, have moved to our town for the summer months, and occupy the pretty little home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Schofield.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus. Krusen and children, of Vineland, N. J., spent a few days of the past week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Krusen.

Mrs. Chas. Severson and son, Lindsey, spent Sunday with Mrs. Warner Gray.

Misses Mabel and Laura Norris went with some of their friends to Tolchester in a launch last Thursday and spent a few delightful days.

Quite a number of people from here and around attended the commencement exercises, which they seemed to enjoy very much.

Mrs. Will Severson and little son, of Philadelphia, have come to the country to spend the summer.

Mr. Clarence Thompson, of Rock Hall, spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Thompson.

Mrs. Chas. Jewell and Mrs. Jack Hackett spent Wednesday in Sassafras.

Miss Katie Capps is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Ed. Stauffer, near Crumpton.

Mrs. Lizzie Lockard and little daughter, Shelma, are visiting our town.

Mrs. Samuel Coleman and daughter, Miss Pearl, have returned from Baltimore and will stay at their home for the summer.

Miss Lucille Parr has been staying in Chestertown the past week.

Our Sunday School room is now about completed and Sunday, June 28, has been decided upon as reopening day. Our pastor is arranging to have two or more of the ex-pastors with us for that Sunday to preach. Let everybody be present. Make it a real "Home Coming." Full announcement next week.

Our pastor's subject Sunday morning, "Better Things for the Sons of God." The evening service will be in charge of the Epworth League with Mrs. Jennie Boulden as leader. The pastor will be present at the Children's Day at Betterton. A cordial welcome awaits you at all the services.

Our base ball team is doing much better, and played the Betterton team last, and lost only by one run, score 9 to 8. Boys put more ginger in your playing any you will win.

Mrs. William Pratt, our baker, has her ice cream parlor open Wednesday and Saturday evenings.

Fine Tombstones Erected.

Mr. James W. Kirby, proprietor of the Chestertown Marble Works, has recently erected a number of fine tombstones and monuments, among them being the following:

For Mrs. Mary E. Saunders, of Rock Hall, in Wesley Chapel cemetery, a very pretty head and foot stone in memory of her husband, the late Thomas J. Saunders.

For Mr. John B. Spry, of Queen Annes, in Church Hill cemetery, a nice granite head and foot stone in memory of his father, the late John L. Spry.

For Mrs. George Hudson in Chester cemetery a very pretty stone in memory of the late Clay Sutton.

For Miss Lizzie Scotten, administrator, in Galena cemetery a, nice granite head and foot stone in memory of her mother, the late Mrs. Sarah Scotten.

For Miss Miriam Jessop, of Baltimore, in St. Paul's cemetery, a very pretty head and foot stone in memory of her mother the late Mrs. Maria Jessop.

For Mrs. S. Newnam, of Chestertown, in St. Paul cemetery a very pretty head and foot stone in memory of her brother, the late George A. Jessop.

For Mr. William R. Maul and sister, of Chestertown, in Crumpton cemetery, a very pretty head and foot stone in memory of their brother, the late Charles F. Maul.

*†*Rock Hall had a small fire scare on Sunday afternoon about one o'clock, when the summer kitchen of Mrs. Minnie Willson attracted the attention of some passers-by who noticed smoke issuing from the roof. Messrs. T. B. Durding, Harry Hogans, Fred Williams and others organized a bucket brigade and soon had the fire under control after only slight damage, principally by water.
