brg1_1_1_1-0025 © Baltimore City Archives

1732 Novr: 4

Town convenient to the water, on a Tract of Land called Cole's Harbour: mett on the ye Land, and aske a certain William Fell, who is in present possession of the ye Land; whither he would sell tenn Acres of Land, out of the ye Tract; who answerd positively, that he neither could nor would sell any of it; whereupon a jury of substantial freeholders, returnd by the Sherif of Baltemore County, proceeded (being first sworne by the ye Commissioners) to inquire who is Owner of ye Land: and found by their Verdict the Orphan's of Coll Richd: Colegate decsd to be Owners of the ye Land, and judgd the value of it, to be three hundred pounds of tobacco per Acre, for tenn acres thereof. At the same time also Mr Philip Jones Surveyer of Baltemore County, who was then & there present, began to survey & lay out tenn acres of Land, by the direction of the ye Commissioners, but could not compleat the survey then for want of time.

+

1732 Novr: 22

On Wedensday ye 22d of Novr: 1732 Captt Robt North Mr Thomas Todd & Captt John Boreing three of the Commissioners for Jones's Town mett upon the above ye Land called Cole's Harbour & orderd the Surveyor of Baltemore County to compleat the survey of the ye Town according to the meets & bounds agreed upon by the Commissioners at their first meeting which Courses shall be enterd when returnd to the Commissioners by the ye Surveyor. Some smal time afterwards the said Mr Philip Jones Surveyr compleated the Survey of the said town which was included in the following Courses & Distances according to the Certificate of the same by him returnd into Baltemore County Record viz Jones's-Town Begining at a large Stone on the