

Whitesbeck June 4/70
Doctor.

I donot know that there was any cause, for your proceedings, at my house the other morning. For I fully thought that the desire, that I had, been trying for so long, had come ~~at~~ at last, (a settlement, much was I surprised, at your proceedings. Running over part of your account, and saying you had forgot the ballance of your papers, and left - Was it so?
Seems that it was, as you soon returned you know, with the missing papers)
I have been trying, as you
