THE LADIES' STORE, CHESTERTOWN, MD.

JEFFERSON.

SEMI-SUMMER REDUCTIONS.

AS the summer is fast passing away and finds us with a few odds and ends in the various lines yet on hand which we will close out at a great reduction to rid our shelves in order to make room for the vast array of fall goods which will soon begin to arrive. While the price in these "odds and ends" are exceptionally low, they are in no wise damaged but are genuine first class stock and as represented or money cheerfully refunded.

WE desire to call especial attention to the fact that "Ladies Store" is the only dry goods and notion house in the town that closes at 7 p. m. during the months of July and August and hope that the public will appreciate this and call during the day and secure some of the bargains offered below.

MILLINERY AT HALF PRICE.

Our Millinery parlors must be cleared AT ONCE. We need the money, we need the room. There are some few choice pattern hats, sailors, trimmed and untrimmed hats, flowers, ribbons, etc., here which must go; we say 50c on the dollar takes them; all persons can find real bargains here. Don't wait, come inspect, but meditate not for the price will surely please.

White Goods.

We have just finished our largest season on white goods, and the cause for the amount of business has been the quality of the line. This has been equal to any to be seen in the city. We are now ready to close out the odds and ends at great sacrifice.

You know what that means. It's a clearing up of all Spring and summer shoe stock. "Six months and out"—is the rule—and here they go.

Kennedyville Items.

Since the welcome rains last week the growing crops have improved wonderfully. The farmers are plowing their fallow, which they can do alright since the rain. Our farmers are up with their work, labor is not as scarce as it was last year.

Mrs. McGinness and daughter, from Florida, are visiting her brother, Dr. J. W. Urie.

Mr. J. R. Jarrell visited his brother in Caroline county last week and says he had a pleasant trip.

Mrs. James Garey has returned to her home in Virginia after visiting her daughter, Mrs. L. A. Pennington.

Miss Louise Bennett is spending sometime in Baltimore.

Fun is fun, and some of the boys changed the wheels on the carriage putting a front wheel back and vice versa, so the young gentleman took his evening drive just the same, and reported he had a pleasant evening. He thought the carriage set a little peculiar, so we can only say he had a pleasant evening, only he was twisted some as he moved along the highway. Oh! My! It takes more than a twisted carriage to keep a fellow from calling on a nice lady friend, especially when he wants to go; he never thinks about a twisted carriage, he just goes, carriage or no carriage.

Now, Messrs. Editors, where are the people going to drive on our public highways? It is not only dangerous for women and children to go alone, but it is dangerous for men, between the automobiles on one hand and the negroes on the other, it is dangerous to travel. One evening this week between 8 and 9 o'clock Mr. D. T. Nickerson was driving home from Betterton, he saw a team coming towards him, and he being over on the right side as far as he could get, yet the team was coming directly towards him, so he called loudly to the parties in the team. They paid no attention but drove into his team and broke it down and they never stopped. Mr. Nickerson had a lady with him, and the shock unnerved her. Had not friends arrived to his aid his trouble might have been more serious than it already was. Now they were negroes in the team. We hope they may get what they deserve. So, between the automobilist and the negro we want to know where the white people are going to drive without fear and trembling.

THE SUM and substance of Mr. Taft's speech of acceptance is the acknowledgement that he will continue the politics of the man who nominated him, President Roosevelt. He is for everything except that which is for the actual benefit and welfare of the common people, as is evidenced by his utterances in reference to corporations and the tariff. These two evils—Corporations and the tariff—are the products of Republican administrations—and have done more to create business depression, destitution and want among the laboring classes, and enormous wealth for the few, than any other feature of governmental regime, and yet this man, Mr. Taft, who would be the President of the great Republic weakly and even cowardly says—"The trusts must be restrained along certain lines, and the tariff must be revised." The people of the country have been hearing such stuff from Republicann presidents and candidates for the past eight years, and in this year the country has faced one of the greatest money panics and eras of business depression ever known. It is time for the people to stop and think, and administer such a rebuke to such flagrant deception as it deserves. Who wants a me-too man in the White House?

THE advance agent of Sparks' circus was in Chestertown on Monday, and he stated that the sentiment in favor of Bryan's election wherever he has traveled, from Michigan to Florida, is far more pronounced and outspoken than it was in 1896 and 1900. He says unless the Republicans use great quantities of money Bryan cannot be beaten. This gentleman has seen much of the country since early spring, and he says he never saw Bryan sentiment so strong as it is now.
