GOVERNOR WILL STUMP.

Proposes to Speak in Advocacy of Bryan's Election.

ANNOUNCEMENT A SURPRISE.

Governor Johnson and Judge Parker Also to be Invited to Speak in Maryland.

Chief among the Democratic plans for the coming election which developed last week was the announcement that Governor Crothers proposes to go on the stump for Bryan.

The Governor made this announcement himself, and it is taken by many as a sign of the sincerity with which Bryan will be supported this time by the Democratic organization. The Governor is enthusiastic about Mr. Bryan's chances and intolerant of the pessimistic view which many Democrats take of the situation, especially in Maryland.

The Governor was for Gov. John A. Johnson for the nomination, but sinc the selection of Mr. Bryan has been quite an ardent supporter of the latter. He said last week:

"I will vote for Mr. Bryan and go on the stump for him because he is the man selected as the standard-bearer of our party in a deliberative convention. I feel that it is the duty of all Democrats to support him and I see no valid reason why they should oppose him.

"In the first place, the Democratic platform on which Bryan will run is emphatic as to campaign contributions and their source, while the Republican platform is evasive. When President Roosevelt was a candidate for the office he now fills Judge Parker, his opponent, made the charge that corporations were subscribing large amounts of money to the Republican campaign fund. This Mr. Roosevelt denied, and yet when Governor Hughes, of New York, prior to his election to that office conducted the investigation into the insurance scandals in New York city it was thoroughly established that corporations had subscribed, and in large sums.

"While we assume that Mr. Roosevelt when denying Judge Parker's allegation, believed he was telling the truth, the fact, nevertheless, remains that Mr. Cortelyou, the chairman of the Republican National Committee, during the campaign was not in any manner reprimanded for such a thing, but was instead continued in office by Mr. Roosevelt and promoted to the Secretaryship of the Treasury.

"The Democratic platform stands for honest elections. Think of what the Republicans have countenanced and ask yourself if they do. The people of Maryland have just seen passed by the Legislature one of the best corrupt practices acts in the country. This State stands for honest elections and, if the people of Maryland want national legislation upon the same subject, they must look to Mr. Bryan and a Democratic Congress.

"The treatment of the tariff question in the platform shows the genuine Democratic doctrine. The tariff as it is now is after all, the root of the trust question. The Republicans wish no change.

ROOSEVELT COLLAR ON TAFT.

"In Judge Taft's letter of acceptance he puts the collar of Roosevelt about his neck tightly. He says 'I am Roosevelt's man,' practically, so all the people have to decide is whether they want Bryan or Roosevelt, because the latter will cleverly dictate all of Taft's actions should he be elected.

"We have had a panic during a Republican administration—a thing they should for years would never take place. We have thousands of men out of work, confidence shattered and industries paralyzed—because of Mr. Roosevelt.

"Now, do the people want four more years of Roosevelt, in which he will continue, by the Taft proxy, to enlarge the powers of that office, keep the country in a constant state of turmoil and lead to far worse conditions than we have now? I hardly thing so.

SAYS BRYAN IS MORE CONSERVVTIVE.

"Mr. Bryan is more conservative than he ever was, and in my opinion has grown to be the type of man we wish now in the Presidential chair. Compare his conservative statements with the actions of Roosevelt. That man has critized the Federal courts in such a manner as to warrant it being supposed that he wished to intimidate them. If there is anything else that can stamp a man quicker as one not fit to govern the United States it is his unscrupulous attack upon the courts, and when you attack the courts you are trying to tear down the very foundations of this country.

"I think the party will stand together for Bryan, especially in Maryland, as all Democrats should, and I believe the State will be carried for him. The full dinner pail argument is dead for the Republicans, you know, and I think the people of Maryland are sensible enough to see that it is the Republicans who have emptied that pail."

The fact that the Governor would go on the stump caused quite a bit of sensation when it was announced, and the Bryan pioneers were especially jubliant over the situation.
