NEWSY BRIEFS.

*†*Mr. Alfred S. Crouch, of Worton, has purchased Mr. John Stevens' farm.

*†*Weavil has gotten into Mr. Walter Crow's wheat crop in his barn near town and has destroyed the entire crop.

*†*Mr. Thos. G. Wroth has sold to Mr. Edward Robinson two houses on East Queen street for $625.

*†*It is reported that young ducks are bringing 19 cents per pound live weight in the lower part of the county.

*†*One of the interesting exhibits at Tolchester fair was a lap robe, neck piece and gloves belonging to Mr. John Gale, which he had made from the hide of a jet black steer. Mr. Gale will use it during the cold weather and sleighing season.

*†*A slight fire occured at the residence of Dr. Ford, on Washington avenue, Tuesday. The fire company responded promptly to the alarm, but before they reached the scene, the flames were extinguished, and but little damage was done.

*†*The home of Mrs. Emma Snitcher, corner Queen street and Maple avenue, advertised in the TRANSCRIPT for rent for 1909, has been rented, and the stoves and other articles advertised for sale are all sold and we have been requested to discontinue the advertisement, with the statement that the TRANSCRIPT did it.

*†*J. H. Sides, the jeweler, had on on display a few days ago a very large and handsome oak chest of sterling silver of about one hundred pieces. This was purchased by Mrs. Emma Snitcher and presented to her daughter, Mrs. Clifton L. Jarrell, who will move into her handsome new home on Washington avenue in about two weeks.

A Great Ball Player.

It is of much interest to base ball lovers of Kent to learn that Hanson Horsey, of this county, is meeting with such marked success as a member of the pitching staff of the Seaford club who are the champions of the peninsula. Herzog, of the New York Nationals, secured Horsey for the Seaford club and regards him as a fast comer. He pitched his greatest game a few days ago, when he shut out the strong Cambridge team with four hits, and did not allow but three men to reach first base, only 31 facing him in the entire game. He goes to the Virginia State League next season. Good luck to you, Hanson.

A LOCAL FAN.

With Our Advertisers.

Messrs. Wm. Medders & Co., of Still Pond, the ever live and wide-awake merchant of Kent is offering an unusual price on Mason's quart jars. Mr. Medders has made a deal which enables him to sell these jars at 50 cents per dozen. See his large three-column advertisement on page 8, as he has many other articles which will interest you.

A young lady of Chestertown while at the Tolchester Fair on Thursday lost her gold watch and fob. It is thought she dropped it when getting in the carriage at the horse rack. See advertisement in this issue.

THE TOLCHESTER FAIR.

Marred in Many Respects by Rain.

EXHIBITS UNUSUALLY GOOD AND UNUSUAL IN NUMBER.

Large Crowds Attend Notwithstanding the Inclement Weather.

The Kent, Queen Annes and Cecil county fair began at Tolchester on Tuesday, and was attended by a large crowd from Baltimore and the counties. On account of the rain the racing was declared off. Notwithstanding the rain on Wednesday a good crowd gathered at the popular beach, but no racing took place on account of the heavy rain storm.

On Thursday thousands of people from far and near visited the fair, viewed the exhibits and witnessed the the races which were as follows:

Mrs. Elizabeth H. Martin

HAD FRONTAL HEADACHES
EYES BOTHERED ME
DROPPING IN MY THROAT

MRS. ELIZABETH H. MARTIN, 332 Bowen Avenue, Chicago, Ill., Chaplain Garfield Circle, writes:

"Peruna has been a blessing to our family for a good many years, as we have all used it off and on for colds and catarrh, and I have given it to all of my children with the best of results.

"I found that a cold left me with catarrh of the head in a very bad form. My head was stopped up, I had frontal headaches, my eyes bothered me, and there was a nasty dropping in my throat which nauseated me and made it impossible many times for me to eat my breakfast.

"As soon as I began to use Peruna I found it relieved me, my head soon cleared up and in a remarkably short time I was rid of catarrh.

"I can, therefore, give my personal experience with your valuable medicine, and am pleased to do so."

People who prefer solid to liquid medicines can now secure Peruna tablets, which contain the medicinal ingredients of Peruna.
