DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT:

WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN,
OF NEBRASKA.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT:

JOHN WORTH KERN,
OF INDIANA.

FOR CONGRESS:

J. HARRY COVINGTON,
OF TALBOT COUNTY.

THE Galena Democratic Club will meet on Monday evening, Oct. 26, instead of Saturday. There will be no meeting on Saturday.

OWING to much unexpected advertising matter we are compelled to carry over to our next issue the address of Judge J. A. Pearce, at the memorial service of the late Rev. C. T. Denroche, and several interesting county correspondence.

THE large and enthusiastic crowds that atteded the Democratic meeting at Chestertown on Tuesday, and that have attended the meetings of the other counties of the Eastern Shore, have a significant meaning. It means that the people of this Congressional District are tired of and dissatisfied with Mr. Wm. H. Jackson as their representative in Congress, and it looks very much to us as though he will be unanimously defeated by Hon. J. Harry Covington Nov. 3. Mr. Jackson's record in Congress has been anything but satisfactory to his constituents.

THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEM MR. COVINGTON AND MR. JACKSON.

If Republicans of the First District had nominaated a man for Congress who, by virtue of his peculiar fitness for the office, was entitled to submit his candidacy to the people, the aspect of the local political situation would be changed, at least in a degree. But did the Republicans nominate a man of this kind? Has any one heard that the slightest thought was given to the fitness of the man? Aside from the fact that he "wants the job," what argument is to be advanced just why Mr. Jackson should go back to Congress? Does the fact that he "wants to" constitute a good reason why the oft nominated gentleman should continue to monopolize a place which should command the best in the way of ability and talent the District can afford? Again we assert that had the Republicans put their best foot forward in the campaign, Mr. Covington might reasonably expect greater opposition; but if Mr. Jackson constitutes the best feet of the Republicans in this District, all we have to say is that they are mighty poorly shod.

Mr. Jackson has no business to ask to be sent again, and the people have no right to send him. We say the people have no right and we mean it. They are imposing upon the Nation and themselves when they assume that Mr. Jackson, in public life, is an asset instead of a liability.

It may be said that the man now credited to this District cannot be attacked upon his record in Congress. Such is the case. You can't attack something that does not exist.

He has no record—and yet this very amiable-no-record-gentleman asks that the people aid and abet him in continuing his negative career, at the expense of the Government.

Are we to do it, and if so, why? Suppose we had a Congress full of Jacksons! What would be the result?

We believe the voters of this District want a representative at Washington diametrically opposed to Jackson; not only in politics, but in many other respects.

In Mr. Covington they have a splendid opportunity for a change, and at the same time to administer a stinging rebuke to those professional politicians who imagine that any one they choose to nominate is good enough for this District.

Mr. Covington, to begin with, is of Congressional timber. He has natural talent that has been developed by training. He is a professional man of ability. He is schooled in the art of debate and familiar with the intricacies of parliamentary and other law He is a man of integrity. He has those personal qualities that make men popular and enable them to touch elbows with other fellows without sacrificing their personal dignity and endangering the dignity of the office to which they are chosen. Mr. Covington is well-balanced and logical. If he has all these things to start with, why should he not replace the man who has shed anything but lustre on the First District, and who has done nothing to its credit?

Democrats, Remember!

In order to make certain the election of Bryan, Kern and Covington, do not fail to go to the polls on Tuesday, November 3d. Remember also, that in order to vote the straight Democratic ticket, you must make one cross mark opposite the names of Bryan and Kern and also one cross mark opposite the name James Harry Covington. Two cross marks votes the straight Democratic ticket.

Congressman Jackson's Congressional Achievements.

The Republican newspapers on the Eastern Shore are making a tremendous effort to induce people to believe that Congressman Jackson is a man of great capacity as a representative in the National House of Representatives. To those who know Mr. Jackson, this is, of course, amusing. His industry and shrewdness in business has not broadened him. He has served three terms, and with even ordinary progress as a legislator he should have become a factor in shaping constructive legislation as a member of the majority party of the House. But the truth is that he is neither reckoned with or consulted by the Congressional leaders in matters pertaining to the welfare of the nation.

But, say his political apologists, he most effectively cares for the needs of his district. If this be so, why was Thomas A. Smith as a member of the Democratic minority able to obtain more money for rivers and harbors in one term in Congress than William H. Jackson obtained in two as a member of the Republican majority? Does not that fact prove Mr. Jackson to be less useful than an active and alert representative may be, even though he be a Democrat?

As a clinching declaration, however, with which to ingratiate Mr. Jackson in the confidence of the people, his political sponsers write: "He was a committee worker, and it is in committee rooms of Congress that all the real legislation is done. The House is pretty apt to accept at face value the bills and other measures reported by the committees. The useful member of Congress, therefore, is the man who succeeds in obtaining favorable reports by committees."

The Congressional Record of the Sixtieth Congress shows in fact that Mr. Jackson's claim to a committee worker is ridiculous. From the sixth of December until the third of April, a period of nearly four months, he is recorded as not voting on every occasion which a vote was taken. He was a member of three committees, but made no report from any of them. He introduced but one bill of a public nature, and that bill was never reported from committee. He did not address the House upon any matter during the entire session. Finally, the record of pairs from April third until the end of the session, warrants the assumption that Mr. Jackson absented himself from the meetings of the House practically during the entire session of six months.

And all this is the record of which William H. Jackson's political managers boast. If he is the big man they claim him to be he must recoil from the very memory of such a negative record. Moreover, unless we mistake the temper of the people of this district, that record will retire Mr. Jackson to private life. But suppose Mr. Jackson is elected, won't he vote to retain Joe Cannon as Speaker against which every liberty loving American is protesting?
