Call them what you will, but at the prices we have pinned on them we call them cheap, and so does the public, judging from the way they are getting into them. Now is your opportunity to fix up very, very cheap. Splice out the coat and vest with a pair out of this lot.

Overcoats and Suits all go now, and we still have a fair line. These reductions of ours are recognized as REDUCTIONS. Think of this.

Cards and dancing perhaps some gosiping with a little politics mixed in, occupied the pleasant time and when at 11.30 we were invited to partake of sandwiches of almost any kind one could imagine, with coffee and chocolate which we did full justice to, it hardly seemed that the evening had begun but tempus fugit and especially so under such pleasant social auspices. The Minstrel Parade.—The parade of Guy Brothers Minstrels the day of the performance, headed by the silver band of soloists under the leadership of Thomas Hoone, will enable our public to form a faint idea of this superb organization. Guy Bros. have spared neither money nor pains to make this the best traveling company on the road. It is by far the best in quality, the largest in number and the oldest in years. Don't fail to see the new scenic effects, everything in motion, clouds rolling by, sun rise and set, water rippling over the rocks, moon rise and set; this is all going on during the first part, while the cultured voiced vocalists charm you and the funny end men keep you laughing. They appear at Stam's Hall Tuesday night, January 30.
