GOV. WARFIELD and Mayor Timanus honored the woman suffragists by welcoming them to Baltimore this week in set speeches.

A GREAT "home products exposition" is to be held in Baltimore next September to last thirty days. It should have every encouragement.

THE American is unjust to Kent's Senator Foxwell. It classes him as a Republican! Why didn't our great city contemporary know better?

CONGRESSMAN SMITH has introduced a number of bills in the House of Representatives this week. But "Uncle Billy Jackson" is still pleading for his seat.

February 7 and 8 is the second anniversary of the great fire that ate out the heart of Baltimore, over 140 acres being laid waste. About 85 per cent. of this burned area has been rebuilt and the city is vastly improved.

MR. HENRY FENGE is one of the Governor's best appointees for Baltimore City. He enters upon his second term as an election supervisor.

SENATOR PERKINS' resolution asking for a report in thirty days on the B. & O. matter is the best way to solve that matter. Its great advantage is in swift action. That is the thing needed. There has been too much delay, too much dilly-dallying entirely. That is what proved fatal to Senator Gorman's resolution. Not that he wanted delay but that it was too slow in plan, and the Senate killed it by a vote of 15 to 11; and it did right. Now give us Senator Perkins' measure.

A Legislative Outrage Proposed.

The General Incorporation Act now before the Maryland Legislature is simply another attempt, which is repeated at every session, to destroy the State Banks. The great trust companies and fostered government institutions are the only concerns fit to live in the view of the latter day monopolists. But these monopolists have undertaken more than they can accomplish. The State Banks are in Maryland to stay, and the fact of their thriving evidences their value to the people. The great city banks are jealous of their smaller State brothers in the counties and mad because they will not die at their bidding. It will be a long time, however, before the county legislators will be fooled into endorsing the city's bank schemes. The savings institutions of the counties are too close to the people to be done away with at the bidding of their more pretentious rivals.

The Election Supervisors.

Governor Warfield, in an interview last Wednesday with a delegation from Queen Anne's county, said:

"I think you should be told of my rule in this matter. I will appoint one Republican, recommended by that party, one Democrat, recommended by the Democratic committee, and the third one will be selected to represent me!"

What did his Excellency mean? To what purpose can an election supervisor represent the Governor? Isn't his Excellency a Democrat?

A New Paper In Baltimore.

A new Democratic weekly paper is to be published in Baltimore soon. It will be under able editorial management and will have abundant capital to assure its permanency in the monumental city. It will be thoroughly non-factional, but a straight out, plain-spoken Democratic paper. Such a paper in our great commercial city is the felt need of the Democracy throughout the State, and every good party man ought to hail its appearance with joy and give it every needed support.

Growing Tomatoes.

Contracting for tomatoes is now an interesting theme for discussion. All agree that the price should be much better than heretofore—first, because the market is empty and the demand is sure to be great; second, the farmer can't grow them at a profit now and pay current wages and the prices they have to pay for every thing they buy.

Many farmers have been in the NEWS office this week and none seem willing to contract under $8 per ton, while many think $9 a fairer price. One intelligent grower, who seldom plants less than twenty acres in Kent, said he had fully made up his mind not to contract for less than 14 cents per basket—$8.40 per ton. Why can't the farmers get together and talk the matter over? The canners also should come together and advise with the growers.

ANNAPOLIS NEWS.

A Dish of Mush Served by a Baltimore Paper.

Hon. Charles T. Westcott and Alday Clements, Esq., represented the Chestertown Bank and Mr. Wm. F. Russell, the Kent County Savings Bank, at a meeting held in Baltimore Wednesday to protest against proposed corporation act. Hon. Joshua W. Miles called it a "monster," and former Senator George L. Wellington asserted that it was a "vicious measure" with a "vicious purpose back of it." The meeting was one of the largest ever held, banks from all over the State being represented. Every institution represented was in favor of killing the bill in its entirety. Even the members of the committee which framed the bill came in for their share of the attack.

Mr. Gibbs has introduced a bill to authorize Commissioners of Kent county to pay to the commissioners of Millington $700 per annum for street improvements; to provide for the election of commissioners for town of Millington, Kent county.

The following interesting gossip was sent from Annapolis last Saturday to the Sun:

Senator Foxwell, accompanied by Mr. Hope H. Barroll, of Chestertown, had a long interview with the Governor and aired the political differences between the factions of the Democratic party in Kent county. Senator Foxwell presented his list of names for the civil appointments in the county. Mr. Barroll acted as spokesman.

"The delegation," said Mr. Barroll, "which was here a few days ago and submitted a similar list containing names of persons who desired to be appointed to office, simply asked you, Governor, to remove every one of the men appointed by you two years ago and to reappoint all of the men who held office in our county under Governor Smith. They want a clean sweep." He referred to the delegation headed by Marion De Kalb Smith and Richard D. Hynson, two of the organization leaders of the county.

Mr. Barroll then proceeded to take up each individual and give reasons why the other faction wanted him removed. He declared that the sole reason why the removal of those now in office was asked for by the organization people was because they were friendly to Governor Warfield and had openly said so.

The Governor let him repeat this several times and then checked him by reminding him that he was not to be dragged into the matter at all and that fitness for office was the only requirement he wanted. He said he would judge all applicants by that standard. Mr. Barroll then asked to see the Governor privately and, with Senator Foxwell, was closeted with the Governor for some time.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Noland and family, of Tolchester, with several of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Skirven's many friends gave them a most pleasant day at their beautiful home "Tulip Forest," Feb. 6th. Games of all kind were enjoyed including fine singing and classic music on piano and autoharp, a sumptuous dinner was served.

Mrs. Tylden Brice, of near Lankford, entertained the Chestertown Ladies Card Club on Tuesday afternoon in a most charming manner.

The St. James sewing circle met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Usilton on Thursday evening and a sumptuous supper was served to over 80 persons.

A very enjoyable party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Gale, near Chesterville, in honor of Messrs. Wm. Mench and Bayard Sutton, of Swan Creek. The features of the evening consisted of games and vocal and instrumental music. At 10.30 p. m. the guests were invited to the dining room, where splendid refreshments were served. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Gale, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. M. Gale, of Baltimore; Misses Carrie Roe, Lizzie Woodall, Mamie, Julia and Maggie Conner, Nola Bedwell, Pearl Faulkner, Loraine Woodall, Mamie and Florence Skinner, Addie Biddle, Anna and Helen Gale; Messrs. Bayard Sutton, Wm. Mench, Albert Grove and Charlie Shriley, of Swan Creek; W. Leo Gale, Lloyd, Carl and Will Dill, Edward Woodall, Joseph Ford, Thomas Conner, Jr., Paul Roe, John and Chas. Bedwell, Samuel Walls, George Davis, Lester Edwards, Hurlock Gale.

The masquerade party held at Miss Blanche Smith's last Thursday was an enjoyable affair. Among the best masked persons were Starlight, morning Star, negro dude, coachman, etc.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Walter Sutton gave their accomplished daughter, Miss May, a grand supper to her many friends at their beautiful home in Edesville Tuesday night. The house was tastefully decorated with evergreens and in every nook and corner potted plants could be seen, while the fragrance of the bud and full bloomed flowers tickled the olfactory nerves and reminded one of a Texas prairie on an early, dewy morning. With the bright and happy faces of the young ever before you look where you may, we are not surprised that Mr. and Mrs. Sutton, in their good heartedness, find so much pleasure in making others happy; and in defense of Miss May let us say that this was not a birthday party—nay, nay; May does not have two or three birthdays every year. At 8 p. m. supper was served, and the palate of an epicure must indeed be hard to tickle if he be not more than pleased at the good things set before him, and we can imagine we can hear more than one saying "it is good to be here," for Walter and his most estimable wife believe in the Latin dum divimus vivamus The following menu was served;

Turkey.
Chicken Salad, a la Walderf-Astoria.
Escalloped Oysters.
Potato Chips, Hominy, Tomatoos, Slaw.
Pickles, Jellies, Olives.
Maryland Biscuit.
Coffee, Tea, Chocolate.

At midnight refreshments, consisting of ice-cream, water ice, cake of various kinds, salted nuts, fruits and coffee were served. The evening was most delightfully spent in games, music and cards, and in the wee small hours it was with reluctance we said good-bye to our kind friends, hoping they may live long to make others happy as they best know how to do. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Neal Willson, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Wheatley, Mrs. M. M. Willson, Misses Mary and Hattie Strong, Maude and Blanche DeFord, Bessie and Nannie Willson, May Sutton, May Morgan, Mildred Crawford Emma Miller; Messrs. Eugene, Notley, John, Dick, Allen and Ernest Willson, Earl Nicholson, Joseph Brice, Charles Jessop, George DeFord, Henry Evans, Hynson Beck, Ringgold Jones, Wilmot Crosby, Edgar Strong.

On last Thursday, Feb. 1st, Mr. and Mrs. B. Neal Willson gave their annual supper to their married friends, consisting of turkey, goose, escalloped oysters, chicken and potato salads, pickles, jelly, biscuit, tea, coffee &c. The presence of Prof. Eugene Willson proved he is equally indispensable to the married as well as the young folks and his charming music was much enjoyed especially when he played the old time dances and the married folks were young again and danced the Virginia reel as in the days gone by. Cards and games were other enjoyable features of the evening. Delightful refreshments of chocolate and vanilla cream cakes, fruits and trimmings were served at midnight. Those present were: B. Neal Willson and wife, J. Walter Sutton and wife, Walter Francis and wife, Carroll Willson and wife, Robert Wickes and wife, John Brice and wife, Chas. Browne and wife, Wm. DeFord and wife, Miss Alice and Prof. Eugene Willson. The art of entertaining is thoroughly understood by our charming host and hostess which was proven to all present.
