SOCIAL EVENTS.

A delightful surprise was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Morris Thursday evening.

Miss Rebecca Eliason entertained the Ladies Card Club at her home near town Monday.

Miss Alice Wilmer entertained a large company at her home on Queen street Thursday.

Misses May and Addie Hurlock gave a reception Monday evening in honor of their guest, Mrs. Louis De Lairo. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jarrell, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Ferguson, Mrs. G. D. Lofland, Misses Clara B. Usilton, Marion Lusby, Messrs. J. W. Crouch, T. D. Bowers, Jesse Medders and others.

The P. D. Q Club was invited to the beautiful home of Capt. John Brice of Easter Neck, on Thursday to a six o'clock dinner which consisted of turkey, wild goose, duck, oysters, chicken, potato salad, jellies, celery, pickles, Maryland biscuit, coffee, tea, chocolate. Refreshments were served at 12 o'clock consisting of ice cream, wine, lemonade and cake. Those present were: Capt. John Brice and wife, C. M. Brown and wife, Walter Frances and wife, Carroll Wilson and wife, Wm. E. DeFord and wife, Robert Wickes and wife, B. Neil Wilson and wife, Misses Alice J. Wilson and Maud Wickes, Pro. Eugene Wilson, and Messrs. J. B. Hossinger, and Mr. Wm. Hendricks. After a most enjoyable evening spent, all left wishing them a long and happy life.

As foreshadowed in NEWS last week the reception tendered Rev. Henry B. Martin Saturday evening in honor of his 6th anniversary was a delightful affair. The present rector has made a worthy successor to the beloved pastor, Rev. S. C. Roberts. He has been instrumental in the erection of the elegant parish building which stands as a monument to his energy and good work.

It was in appreciation of the services rendered by Dr. Martin and his estimable wife that this reception was given. The room was beautifully decorated with holly and evergreens, and the Mandolin Club, of Washington College, discoursed music during the evening. Refreshments, consisting of chicken salad and Maryland biscuit, chocolate and coffee, were served.

The committee of arrangements was composed of Mrs. Ringgold, Mrs. Spencer, Mrs. J. G. Beck, Mrs. Jarman, Mrs Finley and Miss Blanche Constable.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Barroll, Mr. and Mrs. Wright, Dr. and Mrs. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Westcott, Mr. and Mrs. Harris, Dr. and Mrs. Cain, Dr. and Mrs. Micou, Prof. and Mrs. Clark, Dr. and Mrs. Greenfield, Dr. and Mrs. White, Mr. and Mrs. William Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Richards, Mr. and Mrs. Collins, Dr. and Mrs. Hines, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. Hynson, Mr. and Mrs. Connelly, Dr. and Mrs. Whaland, Dr. and Mrs. Simpers, Mr. and Mrs. Welch, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Beck, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Beck, Mr. and Mrs. Slay, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Beck, Mr. and Mrs. Archbell, Mr. and Mrs. Bradley, Dr. and Mrs. Jarman, Mr. and Mrs. Wroth, Mr. and Mrs. Larrimore; Dr. Gilpin, Mr. Eben Perkins, Mr. Ferguson, Prof. Neilson, Mr. Lewin Wickes, Prof. Gault, Mr. Wilmer; Mrs. Perkins, Mrs. Robert McWhorter, Mrs. James Ireland, Mrs. A. J. Hynson, Mrs. Joseph Wickes, Mrs. Ellen Beck, Mrs. Reese, Mrs. Derringer, Mrs. Ireland, Mrs. Physick, Mrs. John Toulson, Mrs. Stam, Mrs. George Brice, Mrs. Ringgold, Mrs. Haves, Mrs. Spencer, Mrs. Fountain; Miss Wickes, Miss Julia Emory, Misses Ireland, Misses Carroll, Miss Connelly, Miss Mary Whaland, Misses Welch, Misses Beck, Miss Reese, Miss Jones, Miss Wilmer, Miss Hallie Westcott, Miss Peterson, Misses Stam, Misses Ringgold, Miss Constable, Miss Brice, Miss Blackiston, Miss Beaston.

Miss Allie Startt, of Virginia, and Mr. Herbert Walbert, of Sparrows Point, were given an oyster supper by their friends at the home of the latter, Mr. James Walbert, on Chester River, Feb. 16, 1906. About 10.30 the guests numbering about fifty, were invited to the dining room to partake of a grand supper which would have of tempted the appetite of an epircurian. The menu consisted of oysters, fried and stewed, chicken salad, potato salad, cheese, pickles, deviled eggs, ham, Maryland biscuits, coffee, tea and chocolate. Among those present were Mr. B F. Rash and wife, Jas. Walbert and wife, Wm. Toulson and wife, John Lee and wife, Mrs. Mollie Crew, Mrs. George M. Hadaway, Mrs. Clark Stoops, Mrs. Wm. Brown, Misses Allie Startt, Annie Brown, Blanche Beck, Katie Dickerson, Beulah Walbert, Alice Brown, Marcia Legg, Effie Goodman, Anna Hadaway, Emma Brown, Flora Kirby, Julia Woodmender, Ethel Rash, Etta Holden, Rose Walbert, Clara Walbert, Messrs. Herbert Walbert, Roy Walbert, Edgar Walbert, Bee Hadaway, Howard Dodd, Hyland Crew, Mowbray Haddaway, Wilmer Brown, Samuel Brown, Elmer Goodman, George Brown, Henry Brown, Alfred Dickerson, Edward Brown, Leon Walbert, Pete Brown, Solomon Walbert, Weldon Walbert. Several select quartettes were sung, after which all left for their homes.

One of the most delightful social events of the season was a suprise given to Mr. Walter Frances and wife at their home near Edesville, on Tuesday Feb. 13th. Dancing, cards and various games were indulged in. Among those present were: Walter Frances and wife, John Brice and wife, Walter Sutton and wife, Neal Wilson and wife, Frank Wheatly and wife George Cosden and wife; Misses Carrie and Jennie Frances, Bessie Nichols, Nannie Price, Flora Wheatly, Bessie and Nannie Wilson, Mary and Hattie Strong, May Sutton, Maud and Blanche DeFord, Mable and Mattie Maslin, Freddie Strong; Messrs. Harry Nichols, Henry Price, Spencer Biddle, Notly, John, Allen and Earnest Wilson, Edgar and Miller Strong, George DeFord, Henry Evans, Ringgold Jones, Medford Brooks Wilmot Crosby, Harry Rickey. Music was furnished by Prof. Eugene Wilson. At midnight coffee and sandwitches, pickles and jellies were served and later the happy crowd said farewell wishing to have such a happy time in the near future.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wickes gave them a surprise on Friday evening, Feb. 16th. Dancing was indulged in, music being furnished by Prof. Eugene Willson. Those present were, Robert Wickes and wife, Carroll Willson and wife, Walter Sutton and wife, Neal Willson and wife, Frank Wheatley and wife, John Brice and wife, Mr. Biddle Hossinger, Mrs. Nannie Willson; Misses Bessie, Nannie, Lea and Sophia Willson, Blanche and Maud Deford, May Sutton, Mattie and Mabel Maslin, Flora Wheatley, Blanche Kilbourn and Maude Wickes, Messrs. Fred Holmes, Ringgold Jones, Earle Nicholson, George Deford, Notley, Allen John and Ernest Willson, Henry Evans, Harry Kilbourn, Edgar and Miller Strong.

Surprisers surprised. Awake! arouse! shake off the guilty dew drop. The would-be surprisers of the fifth district backed up to Mr. and Mrs. J. Walter Sutton's on Tuesday night but met with nothing but total darkness. Mr. Sutton was in Baltimore and his wife and daughter having found it out during the day, went upstairs and locked themselves in for the night. After the surprisers had banged on the door for more than hour and getting no response finally determined to call upon Mr. and Mrs. W. E. DeFord. Mr. DeFord and his wife were just preparing to retire, but threw open their door and gave them a hearty welcome. Refreshments were served at midnight and at two o'clock the crowd left declaring they had a good time and that after all the night was not a total failure, although Mr. DeFord is considered to be very deaf, he was not the only one in the fifth that was deaf that night. Now my advice to you, my friends is this, when you back up to the next door back up to the right one.
