FILLING PIPE PROVED FATAL.

A distressing fatality occurred in Elk Neck on Wednesday morning of which Samuel Hopkins, who resided about three miles West of Elkton, was the victim. Seeing a bunch of ducks on the river, he remarked to his brother that he would try to bag a few of them and started for the shore with his gun. On his way through the woods, he sat upon a log, resting the gun between his knees while filling his pipe. In some way the weapon was discharged, the load entering his right breast and killing him instantly. His clothing caught fire, and the body when found later by Frank Bryson, who was hauling rails from the woods, was horribly burned. Coroner Nelson, who was notified, went at once to the scene, and after due inquiry gave a certificate of death from accident. Mr. Hopkins was about 48 years of age and unmarried.

THIS APPLIES TO CHESTERTOWN ALSO.

The Smyrna Call says: The fact is generally recognized that Smyrna has to-day about the worst streets to be found anywhere in a town of its size, wealth and importance. And the further fact that this conditon should be remedied is also recognized. The patchwork plan of pouring a few bushels of oyster shells into holes here and there will never remedy it.

In this day when the economy and the advisability of permanent street building is so generally accepted, there can be no excuse for a continuation of the old methods. The plan of properly building sections of streets and continuing until all the town has been covered, has given to Milford, Dover, Lewes and other town streets which are a pleasure to the residents, and call forth favorable comment of visitors. The town of Milton is moving along sensible lines in this matter at present. The Council of the town by public notice invite the citizens to attend the regular meetings of that body that there may be general discussion on this very important subject.

As our own Council have lately shown a disposition to move in this direction it might be advisable for our public spirited citizens to join with the members and give them all the moral support possible.

[The streets of Chestertown are in sad need of some system of permanent road building. The holes and ruts are a disgrace and nuisance to a civilized community.

Another thing: Quit killing dogs on the public streets.]

DON'T make any mistake, but remembe he name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on very bottle.

HERE is a man who wants another's place. That proves that he is not a man, but a place seeker. Then he proceeds to depreciate him and try to break him down—that proves that he is a slanderer and unworthy of the place he seeks. The true man will never seek another's place—he will proceed to make a place of his own. He will not undermine another, he will find rather in the other's success a stimulus for his own life. In the ministry the true man wants the place that God in His Providence has made for him, and when he gets there he will be happy and contented in it, and no other who is worthy will want it, nor can he fill it until God prepares him for it and calls him to it.

DR. BULL'S COUGH SYRUP is reliable. Why try a new medicine when this old reliable remedy can be had for 25 cents, AT ALL DRUGGISTS.

WHEREVER you spend your vacation, whether in the mountains or at the seashore, see that you have the proper shoes. Do not wear patent leather shoes for tramping, nor tennis shoes for dancing. Select the proper shoe for each purpose. Comfort and economy are both secured by a frequent change of shoes.

DOLLY MADISON SHOES supply the right footwear for each occasion on the most economical price basis.
