APPOLLO'S FOUNT.

FROM THE BOSTON COURIER.

SONG.

Of spunky JONATHAN, who, from the walls of Lexington road fired away all his ammunition, and then threw stones!

A PLAGUE on those snivelling cox-combs, say I,
Who would sell for a sixpence their freedom;
About poverty, ruin and hardship they cry,
And think that the people will heed 'em,
If they say we regard our own pockets alone,
'Tis quite on wrong ground that they argue,
We reckon the public advantage our own,
Nor selfishly curse the Embargo.

To paint our starvation the knaves seize the pen,
And paper defile by the acre,
They'll whine, till their purpose is answered; and then,
We may starve and be hang'd for what they care;
To save us from starving, and hanging to boot,
I'm mistaken if they would so far go;
Number one, as I guess, is the principal root,
Of this clamour about the Embargo.

When hungry I've fought, and when naked I've toil'd,
For Freedom, the greatest of treasures;
No hardships could move me when liberty smil'd,
I laugh'd at effeminate pleasures,
Shall I, who so often, mid danger, and want,
Have gone, far as any man dare go,
Beneath lighter burthens now grumble and pant,
And shrink from the ills of Embargo.

When no pay I could get, to be sure I did stare,
'Twas hard—but we were independent—
All suffer'd—so cheerfully I bore my share—
'Twas well lost—and so there was an end on't,
In those times, when tories appeal'd to our wants,
We soon did for feathers and tar go;
I'm the old soldier still, whom no suffering daunts,
Not even the pinching Embargo.

I hold that when storms that we cannot control,
Sweep with terrible fury the ocean;
'Tis better in port to make sure of the whole,
Though we lose for a while a proportion,
I like, when my country is thriving, the cash,
For money ('tis said) makes the mare go;
But, in base competition with freedom, 'tis trash—
So, huzza for the prudent Embargo.

FROM THE TRENTON TRUE AMERICAN.

REASONS

Why I went vote for JAMES MADISON as President.

Because he was an early, and has been an uniform friend to the independence and liberties of this country.

Because he was one of the first proposers and most ardent advocates of the present Federal Constitution; and has faithfully observed and supported it, in letter and spirit, ever since its adoption.

Because he would not join with Hamilton, in striving to introduce a Monarchical Government, formed after the model of the British.

Because he was opposed to the Funding System; by which system a few unprincipled Speculators were enabled to reap all the scanty rewards of the toils and sufferings of the poor Soldiers—

Because he wished to introduce a system in lieu of the present, by which the Speculators should be reimbursed what they actually paid for the Soldier's Certificates, and even interest thereon; while the residue should be paid to the Soldiers who rendered the service and underwent the sufferings for which they were intended as a compensation.

Because he was opposed to the British system of measures which Hamilton and Pickering led JOHN ADAMS into, and which, could they have been effectuated, would have raised America almost to an equal height in glory and happiness with Old England herself!

Because he drew the famous Resolutions which the Legislature of Virginia passed against the Alien and Sedition Laws, which shook the Adams-Administration to the foundation, and led to the demolition of the Hamilton and Pickering system of measures.

Because he accepted an appointment under that unchangeable friend to Liberty and foe to Tyranny, JEFFERSON—and aided him in all his schemes of Economy, of Peace, of Justice, &c.

Because he has dared to meet the most celebrated politicians of the British school in the Diplomatic field, and has completely vanquished, disarmed and disgraced them.

Because he has firmly resisted the usurpations of Britain of liberties which did not belong to her, and vigorously repelled her aggressions upon those rights which were essential to our national independence.

Because he would probably pursue the same system which JEFFERSON has struck out; and all our hopes of a restoration to the British crown, or of an establishment of a Royal Government of our own, be extinguished forever.

Because he is a favorite with the People, and as "the People are their own worst enemies," none whom they approve ought to be elected.

Because nearly an hundred Republican Members of Congress, after a consultation together, agreed to recommend him to the public—which proves that he is as great a favorite with Congress as with the People.

Because he is in the full vigor of life, and enjoys the perfections of his intellectual faculties; and would therefore be more likely to outwit and defeat the enemies of his country.

Because if we must have a Democratic President, we would prefer one whose body was debilitated and mind impaired by age—whom we might have a chance of governing by our usual arts of flattery, deception, carresses, persuasion, and the like—and who, while he is too old to do much good to the United States, is also too old to do much harm to their enemies.

To be Let,

For one, two, or three years, as may be agreed on by the parties,

THAT well improved fertile FARM, whereon William Frazier, deceased, lately lived, lying in Caroline county.

This plantation possesses many advantages. It is beautifully situated upon Choptank River, has good convenient landings for the delivery of its products. Is partly surrounded by fine angle and seine fisheries—It has excellent, extensive pasturage for all kinds and quantity of stock, abounds with a variety of fruit; has two large apple orchards, with outhouses sufficient to secure a large crop; and when well cultivated, it is capable of producing annually from 1000 to 1500 bushels of wheat, four or five hundred barrels of corn, and a good crop of tobacco, oats, flax, &c.

Mrs. Frazier reserves the dwelling-house, carriage-house, garden, and the two lots laying on each side of the garden, as they are now enclosed, with sufficient apples and other fruits for her family's use, and pasturage for her small stock. This farm being large, will require a tenant with a strong force; and it is very desirable that he produce strong testimonials of his honesty, industry, sobriety, and neighbourly disposition.

Those that incline to take this farm, may know the terms by applying to Colonel William Richardson, or Henry Johnson.
