THE HUB'S BIG DOUBLE STORES, MILLINGTON, MD.

SPECIAL ANNOUCEMENT

On account of the extremely cold weather, some of my patrons were not able to attend the great ANNIVERSARY SALE, and in order to give every one of my friends an opportunity to participate in the great MONEY SAVING event, we will extend this sale until the end of this month.

NOTICE!

Some people are apt to form a conclusion that because the prices in this adv. are so low that we'll be unable to furnish the goods at the advertised prices. The FACTS are that we never advertise an article unless we have it in stock. It may have happened to you to attend a sale even on the first day and ask for a certain article as advertised and the clerk would tell you sold out. If we advertise it, we have it.

This Sale Will be Continued Until the End of This Month.

Dollars saved are dollars earned. The purchasing power of your dollar is what you make it. If we show you how you can get $2.00 actual value for only one, it's your own fault if you don't take advantage of it. Are you contented to pay regular price for your clothes, when you can come here and make your dollars go twice as far.

TO PROTECT FARMERS' AND POULTRYMEN.

A Bill Has Been Prepared and Will be Introduced in the Legislature to Prevent Receiving or Purchasing of Poultry Between Sunset and Sunrise.

At the request of many of the farmers' and poultrymen of this county, who have suffered much loss from such illicit practices, the follwing bill has been prepared and will be introduced in the Maryland Legislature for the protection of all concerned:

A BILL.

Entitled an Act forbidding the receiving or purchasing of turkeys, geese, ducks, chickens or guinea fowls anywhere within the limits of Kent county, Maryland, by hucksters, dealers or merchants between sunset and sunrise of the following morning, and providing a penalty or punishment for the doing of the same.

Section I. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, that it shall not be lawful for any huckster, dealer or merchant to receive or purchase from anyone anywhere within the limits of Kent county, Maryland, between sunset and sunrise of the following morning any turkeys, geese, ducks, chicken or guinea fowls, either dead or alive, and anyone violating any of the provisions of this law shall, on conviction in the Circuit Court for Kent county, be fined not less than twenty-five dollars, or, in the discretion of the Circuit Court for Kent county, be committed to and confined in the Maryland House of Correction for not less than two months and not more than one year.

Section 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Such a law as this is in force in Frederick county, and it does much to protect the farmers and poultrymen.

Preacher's Tribute to Cook.

The following letter appeared in the last issue of the Methodist Protestant. For the benefit of the many friends of Jimmie Cook, the boy evangelist, in this county, we are asked to publish it.

Thanks, Dr. Smith, for your contribution entitled, "My! I Was Glad Last Night." It was nicely written, timely and to the point. I read, I wept, I rejoiced, and finally exclaimed, "My I was glad this day." Jimmie Cook, the boy evangelist, was apprehended and lodged in Chestertown Jail as the man wanted who had committed several robberies in Delaware and Maryland. He was not guilty, however. Providential circumstances were such that I was in Chestertown this day. I was summoned to a telephone and informed that a suspicious chracter "who claimed to be Jimmie Cook," was in jail. I was asked, "Do you know Jimmie Cook?" I replied, "Yes." The captor doubted Jimmie's story, whereupon I volunteered to appear at the jail and look at the man. I went immediately, spoke of my mission to the sheriff and was ushered into the presence of men who were quizzing the fellow. I paused a few seconds and finally walked in front of the man and stood silent. He looked up and remarked, "Why how do you do, Mr. Morrison." He always addressed me thus. I replied, "Well, Jimmie Cook! what are you doing here?" He said, "Hard luck, Mr. Morrison; hard luck." The State's Attorney interrupted by asking, "Jimmie, where did you see Mr. Morrison before this time?" He replied, "I assisted him in revival meeting in Wilmington, Del. The attorney asked me if this was true. I replied that it was. After the exchange of a few more words between subject and writer the affair took a sudden change. That scene I shall never forget. Stout hearts were subdued, eyes moistened and pursestrings loosened. The most pathetic inicident to me was when Dr. Simpers, "a dapper little man with a great big heart," got down at the feet of the unfortunate, only to find poor Jimmie shoeless. This was a picture of plenty and poverty, side by side. But all hearts beat as one in that jail "for the comfort and welfare of Jimmie," and out of the abundance of things, he was washed and clothed, fed and kept warm. He was in a sorry gear, and a pitiable object. But O! what a change. Brethern, I had never realized (fully) until then the meaning of the Scriptures, "When saw we thee a stranger and took thee in? or naked and clothed thee? Or when saw we thee sick or in prison and came unto thee? Verily, I say unto you, inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethern, ye have done it unto me." Jimmie talked incoherently at times, nevertheless he displayed strong faith in God, and exhibited the old-time zeal and fire of the Holy Spirit. He has been instrumental in leading many souls to Christ, and he expressed his belief that he would be sufficiently restored to do, at least, something for the Master. Misfortune has overtaken Jimmie, and he may be down and out, "as one of our daily papers put it," in the estimation of the world, but his simple faith and trust in God raises him to a high place in Christ's kingdom. He went out from that jail and that town, "making his way toward Alabama," with "God bless you and speed you on your journey." My! I was glad this day. G. A. MORRIS.
