WHILE we deeply regret the defeat of Judge Wm. H. Adkins for chief judge, because we believe him to be better equipped for the chief judgeship than his successful opponent, Mr. Constable, yet we congratulate the latter upon the splendid run he made in the district. Mr. Constable carried three of the counties in the circuit, Cecil, Kent and Queen Annes, and his majority over Judge Adkins in the circuit is 1900. Judge Adkins' defeat was undoubtedly occasioned by the fear of a Republican judge on the bench. This is a Democratic circuit, and while many voters would like to have seen Judge Adkins elected to the Court of Appeals bench, his opponents started the erroneous report that Governor Goldsborough would appoint a Republican judge who would hold office for nine years, and hundreds of voters believed it. And then, too, the county organizations lined up solidly behind Mr. Constable, and this together with the Republican scare, greatly handicapped Judge Adkins. But though defeated, Judge Adkins is still with us as associate judge to dispense justice in an impartial manner, and now that Mr. Constable is nominated for chief judge, he will have the united and unqualified support of the Democracy of the circuit, and he will be elected in November without opposition.

ANALYSIS OF THE VOTE.

An analysis of the vote in Kent county discloses some interesting facts. The Organization forces are claiming that they centered their efforts upon the judgeship fight, and there is no gainsaying the fact that they worked like beavers, not only for the judgeship, but also for their delegates to the State Convention. They are not saying so, but they would have rather won the delegates to the State Convention than anything else in the world, because they know that local significance attaches to the election of delegates. There is no local politics attached to the judgeship fight, much as we would like to have seen Judge Adkins nominated. But the point is that even though the Organization centered their efforts on the judgeship fight, they show an alarming loss of strength, even though they made a bruising fight to nominate Mr. Constable. Let us see. In the primary of last Aug. Mr. Beck polled 1,091 votes. In the primary last Monday the vote for Mr. Constable, the man upon whom Mr. Beck, Mr. Vickers and the combined forces centered their most strenuous efforts, received only 1,025 votes. Here is a difference of 66 votes. Accepting the statement of the leaders of the Organization that they centered their efforts upon the judgeship, which efforts were none the less strenuous than for the nomination of Mr. Beck for the Senate last August, the Organization faction is 66 votes weaker in this contest than they were in the primaries last August, and the actual fact of the matter is that they are more than twice that weak because Mr. Constable received so many more Anti votes than did Mr. Beck. On the other hand Mr. Charles W. Kibler's vote was 1051 while Mr. Constable got 1025. And so, notwithstanding the strenuous efforts the Organization made to nominate Mr. Constable, he was beaten 26 votes by Mr. Kibler, the Anti-Organization candidate, who made a quiet canvas among his friends.

But here comes the blow that staggers the Organization. The combined vote of the three Anti-Organization candidates for delegates to the State Convention is 257 greater in the county than is the combined vote of the Organization forces. Now, when you take into consideration the bruising fight made by Capt. Crane and every Organization leader and worker in the county to win votes, and also consider the fact that the Antis made no especial efforts to nominate their delegates, Mr. Ayres never going out of his district, and Mr. Davis not more than twice, the overwhelming victory of the Anti-Organization forces is all the more significant, and the real reason for the Organization's defeat is the millstone of the Road Engineer around the necks of the tax-payers, forced there by Mr. Beck's refusal to repeal the iniquitous road law, when he had a chance to do so for the people in the last Legislature. This refusal to heed the voice of the people, whose money is being squandered by incompetent management on our public roads, is the millstone which is dragging the Organization in the county to destruction, and the voters showed their resentment of such treatment in the last primaries. The situation looks gloomy for the Organization forces, and their lack of political sagacity and their persistency in endeavoring to fool the people is the cause of it all. It pays always to play the game straight and according to rules.

GOVERNOR WILSON'S DEFEAT.

The showing which Governor Woodrow Wilson made in the primary contest throughout the State on Monday is by no means discouraging to his thousands of admirers and friends. The result in Baltimore city, where the administration was in control of the situation, was not surprising to those who study politics. It will be remembered that Senator Arthur P. Gorman carried Baltimore city by more than 12,000 in the gubernatorial primaries. Governor Wilson's vote of more than 6,000 in Baltimore city is an indication of his great popularity with voters independent of a strong party organization, and the fact that he carried six counties on the Eastern Shore, Baltimore, Frederick, Anne Arundel and Calvert counties, defeating Speaker Clark on the popular vote outside of Baltimore city by 852, is an evidence of the popularity of the New Jersey Governor with the agricultural interests of the State. The result of the primary in the State shows conclusively that Governor Wilson is particularly strong with the people who are untrameled by the pressure of a powerful political organization, and the result is food for serious thought on the part of those who, through political power and prestige, are seeking to defeat Governor Wilson. There is not the slighest doubt in our minds that Governor Wilson is the strongest candidate the Democratic party can nominate for president at this time. Speaker Clark has a splendid reputation. He has done a great work for his party and for his country. But his long public career, as is the case with any man so long in public life, has created thousands of enemies, and his arraignment of Grover Cleveland, and his public utterances against one of the greatest and most popular presidents the Republic ever had, makes him in our judgment an impossibility as an available candidate. The worst thing that can be said against Governor Wilson is that he has accomplished the downfall of one the most corrupt political machines of modern times, and redeemed the great State of New Jersey from the clutches of corrupt politicians. This has given him his marvelous hold upon the affections of the great masses of the people all over the country. The fact that the great political organizations all over the country are backing Champ Clark is creating a condition similar to that which nominated Alton B. Parker and caused his ignominious defeat, and it is to be hoped that the Democatic party will not make its proverbial blunder at the critical moment and force the nomination of a man whose candidacy will have so many elements of weakness in it as will that of Champ Clark should he be nominated.
