Notice.

ON application in writing of William Haynes, of Talbot county, to me the subscriber, one of the associate judges of the second judicial district of Maryland, in the recess of Talbot county court, for the benefit of the act of assembly passed at November session, 1805, entitled, "an act for the benefit of sundry insolvent debtors," and the several supplements thereto, a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors, as far as he can ascertain them, on oath, being annexed to his said petition, and being satisfied by competent testimony, that the said petitioner is a citizen of the state of Maryland, and that he has resided therein the two last preceding years; and being also satisfied that the said William Haynes is now in actual confinement for debt, and for no other cause, I do hereby order that the said William Haynes be discharged from his imprisonment; and that the first Thursday of the county court, to be held for Talbot county, at the court-house in the town of Easton, on the fourth Monday of May next, be appointed, for the appearance of the said William Haynes, at the court-house aforesaid, to answer such interrogatories as his creditors may propound to him; and also to deliver up his property for the benefit of his creditors—I do further order that the said William Haynes, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in the Easton Star, once a week for three months successively, before the said first Thursday of May Term next, give notice to his creditors to appear before the judges of Talbot county court, on the first Thursday aforesaid, to recommend a trustee for their benefit. Given under my hand this thirteenth day of February, 1809.

THOS. WORRELL.

Chester-Town, February 21, 1809.—3m

Five dollars reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, on the 26th ultimo, an apprentice boy to the Hatting Business, by the name of Henry Steele; it is likely he will alter it to Sherwood.—he is about 19 years 11 months of age, well grown, has large feet, fair skin and light hair: took with him a large bundle of clothes too tedious to mention. All persons are forewarned from harboring the said boy; masters of vessels are notified not to take him on board, as I am determined to put the law id force if they do. Whoever brings the said boy home shall receive the above reward, and no other charges.

WM. RYDER.

Cambridge, March 7, 1809. 39

Six cents reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, on the 30th of December last, an apprentice boy by the name of Abel Kirby, about 18 years of age, slender and small made for his age, bound to the blacksmith's business. The above reward, with no charges, will be paid if brought home.
